TRUE NICKS

BREEDING SHED

Keeping the Membership informed, LTBA President Warren J. Harang, III

In the world of racing there is no higher honor than that of earning an Eclipse Award. We now have standing in our state the sire of this year's Eclipse Champion 2-year-old Male, Storm The Court. His sire Court Vision stands at Acadiana Equine at Copper Crowne in Opelousas for a very affordable fee of $3,500. While Storm the Court is a Kentucky bred, there is no reason to doubt that we can produce Louisiana breds of the same caliber! I am very pleased to again be able to say that we in Louisiana have the breeding stock to produce runners that can compete and win on the national level. We have shown that with such notable Louisiana-breds as G1 La Troienne winner Big World (Custom For Carlos-Tensas Wedding Joy), 2019 G2 Honorable Miss winner Minit To Stardom (Star Guitar-Wild About Marie), 2019 G2 Honorable Miss placed Ours To Run (Half Ours-Brown Eyed Baby), G1 Hopeful Stakes placed Givemeaminit (Star Guitar-Powerful Nation), who has just retired to the breeding shed. I look forward to being able to add to this list in the coming year.

The 2019 running of Louisiana Champions Day is now in the history books. Members of the U.S. Armed Forces were once again honored as has become the tradition for the day. It was a beautiful day with exciting races featuring the best Louisiana breds competing. Louisiana Champions Day always brings both new talent and old favorites to the winners circle. Congratulations to the connections of the winners and to all of the competitors. This day continues to bring out the best in Louisiana bred racing.

Louisiana Commissioner of Agriculture Dr. Mike Strain visited the Fair Grounds again on Louisiana Champions Day. Dr. Strain has been and continues to be our greatest supporter and advocate in the Louisiana Legislature. In addition to Dr. Strain, Louisiana State Representatives Beryl Amedée and Polly Thomas attended the races. We certainly appreciate their involvement and encourage all of our members to communicate with your legislators regularly regarding the importance of our industry.

The breeding season is now underway. I welcome new 2020 Louisiana stallions, Breaking Lucky, Peppered Cat and Speightsong who are all included in the Louisiana Horse 2020 Stallion Register. Since the publication of the Stallion Register, Givemeaminit and Trust Factor have retired to the breeding shed at Clear Creek Stud in Folsom, and Secret Circle has moved to Elite Thoroughbreds also in Folsom. These three have statistical pages in this issue of Louisiana Horse. Additionally, you can read about all of these fine additions in the article on page 17.

Clear Creek Stud is once again to be congratulated for putting on an exceptional stallion show. Val

Murrell and his staff put on a first rate function. This annual event is a showcase for our entire breeding industry. Industry leaders as well as several state legislators were in attendance, making this an opportunity for legislators to learn more about how important our industry is to the economy of the state, as well as an opportunity for horsemen to talk with them face to face.

Acadiana Equine at Copper Crowne is to be commended as well. In combining their stallion show with presentations on mare and foal development topics, they are taking steps to educate our breeders and to promote the health of our industry.

Our next big event is Louisiana Premier Night coming up quickly at Delta Downs, Saturday, February 8. This is first of the four state-bred stakes days in Louisiana, one held at each track.

I encourage everyone to be actively involved in all aspects of our industry. Come to a board meeting; be informed and involved. Come to the races; bring your family and friends; the more interest we can generate, the better for all of us. "The more the merrier!" We at the LTBA are doing all we can to be of service to you, the breeders. If you have any questions about our program, the staff in our offices at Fair Grounds and Louisiana Downs are happy to help. I personally am always happy to hear from you, especially with suggestions for improving our program.

PEDIGREE PATTERNS

By Avalyn Hunter

GUILT TRIP

Thanks to the competition in the Kentucky market, not every well-bred, good-performing horse can find a home at stud there. That means that horses with considerable potential sometimes slip through the cracks to end up in a regional market, and that appears to have been the case with Guilt Trip. The champion Louisiana freshman sire of 2018 came right back to lead the state's second-crop sire list in 2019 and is bidding fair to become an established success at Jay Adcock's Red River Farms, where he will stand the 2020 season for $2,500.

Guilt Trip's early successes appear especially promising in light of his own racing performance, which would suggest two turns as the forte of his progeny. Unraced at 2, Guilt Trip was a two-time winner at a mile at 3, both wins coming at Belmont. At 4, the colt won the Strub Stakes (G2) over nine furlongs and was third in the San Fernando Stakes (G2) and the Mervyn LeRoy Handicap (G2), both at one and one-sixteenth miles. He retired having won or placed in nine of his 14 starts for earnings of $301,217.

Bred in Kentucky by Winsong Farm, Guilt Trip has some pedigree similarities to three-time champion sire Tapit, who is likewise by Pulpit out of a Fappiano-line mare with a strain of Nijinsky II in her lineage. A multiple grade 2 winner with a stellar pedigree (by 1992 Horse of the Year and two-time champion sire A.P. Indy out of grade 1 winner Preach, by Mr. Prospector), Pulpit was an anchor for Claiborne Farm's stallion roster until his death in 2012. Aside from Tapit, his stallion sons include grade 1 sires Sky Mesa, Stroll, and Lucky Pulpit, with the last-named being the sire of two-time Horse of the Year California Chrome.

Guilt Trip was produced from the mating of Pulpit to Mysterieuse Etoile, whose sire Quiet American (by Fappiano) formed an effective sire/broodmare sire cross with Pulpit. From 15 foals so bred, 14 started, 12 won, four were stakes winners, and two were grade 2 winners.

A high-class miler who gained his signature victory in the 1990 NYRA Mile (G1), Quiet American was the product of an experiment in close inbreeding by John Nerud as his pedigree features the closely related mares Killaloe and Demure 2x1. Both were sired by Dr. Fager from daughters of Tartan Farm foundation mare Cequillo. The inbreeding apparently did Quiet American no harm as, aside from his racing prowess, he proved to be a good sire and broodmare sire.

Mysterieuse Etoile was a winner at 3 and 4 and won both at sprint distances on dirt and on turf. A full sister to stakes-placed War Tempo and a half sister to stakes winner Salty Sea (by Siberian Express) and stakes-placed Darkwood (by Fit to Fight), she is also a half sister to Regrette Rien (by Unbridled's Song), whose son Silver Grecian (by multiple group 1 winner Haafdh) won the 2009 Superlative Stakes (G2) as a juvenile in England.

Mysterieuse Etoile and her siblings are out of Rose Indien (by Crystal Glitters), a listed stakes winner in England and a half sister to French group 2 winners Majorien (by Machiavellian) and America (by Arazi). The last-named mare is the dam of Americain (by Dynaformer), a champion stayer in both Europe and Australia. Rose Indien, in turn, is out of Green Rosy (by Green Dancer), a stakes-placed full sister to listed stakes winner Big Sink Hope and a half sister to grade 3 winner Rose Bouquet (by Full Out). Generally speaking, this is a female line that has shown both miler speed and staying ability but has not been particularly precocious.

Given a genetic background that suggests throwing precocity is not likely to be his strong suit, Guilt Trip has done well as a sire of juveniles thus far, with nine of his 15 winners scoring at 2 (including one stakes winner and one stakes-placed runner). Equally encouraging, two of those juvenile winners trained on to win stakes at 3, and there is every reason to think that some of his early runners will improve as they continue to mature.

“He’s a nice, medium-sized horse, not real tall but solid and really muscular,” says Adcock. “He’s very correct, especially up front—no trouble with his knees or anything. He seems to do best with taller mares that have some stretch to them; he’ll add some muscle without the foal losing the mare’s height and scope, and those are the foals that have been running best so far. He’s got a good mind and he’s passing that on to his babies as well. He should have a pretty decent crop coming up this year.”

Inbreeding to Fappiano—a high-class miler in his own right, as well as a top sire—is increasingly common these days, and Guilt Trip appears to be a good match for mares with Unbridled’s Song up close, both because this brings in another cross of the bloodlines that produced Tapit and because such mares also commonly have the tall, scopy build that seems to work best with him. Breeders may also want to consider mares whose pedigrees have multiple links to the Tartan Farm/Nerud bloodlines that produced Unbridled and Quiet American. Those links would include names such as Dr. Fager, Ta Wee, Great Above (sire of Holy Bull), Ogygian, In Reality, and Cozzene. Among the various Storm Cat lines, mares tracing to Forestry (whose granddam was a daughter of Dr. Fager) may be best suited to him, and crosses of Blushing Groom may be worth incorporating as well.

Racing is a “what have you done for me lately” business, and the 2020 performances of Guilt Trip’s first crop of 4-year-olds, as well as his latest crop of juveniles, will likely tell the tale as to whether Guilt Trip will make it as an enduring success. Nonetheless, he has done well early beyond any reasonable expectations, and if his babies follow him in improving with maturity, he should be a factor in Louisiana breeding for some time to come.

ROMERO MOVES ON TO NEXT CHAPTER

by Martha Claussen

Longtime LTBA Staffer Loretta Romero Retires

The word retirement is just not an appropriate idiom for Loretta Romero, who concluded her 38-year tenure with the Louisiana Thoroughbred Breeders Association (LTBA) at the end of October.

Romero, who was born in Metairie, Louisiana, was hired by LTBA in 1982. She looked back on the beginning by referring to herself as a Loretta Romero, who began her career with the LTBA in 1982, has retired, but continues to be active in the industry assisting her husband Gerald on their farm in Bethany as well as volunteering with the Backside Benevolent Foundation.

“very naïve young lady”, but quickly mastered her many duties. Romero worked with three directors of the association, beginning with Buddy Abadie, then Tom Early, who took the position when Abadie retired and the current LTBA leader, Roger Heitzmann.

She was assigned to the Louisiana Downs LTBA office, which was fine for Loretta and her husband Gerald. He was a jockey at the time who rode at Louisiana Downs and Fair Grounds. They purchased a farm in Bethany, Louisiana in 2007.

Her daily duties in the LTBA office were numerous, including completing the necessary paperwork for breeders accreditation as well as Jockey Club registration information. Romero also assisted horsemen with pedigree research and other inquiries. In her tenure, many changes were approved in Louisiana, including video poker and slot machines, which boosted purses. It was a boon to the growth of Louisiana racing, but required tremendous attention to accounting detail for LTBA at Louisiana Downs, another one of her primary roles.

The beginning of each race meet was very labor intensive with paperwork, but Loretta loved the steady stream of horsemen stopping by her office to make sure their horses had completed the necessary steps for accreditation.

She was never too busy to assist breeders, owners and trainers and built friendships with too many to mention. Three-time Louisiana Downs leading Thoroughbred trainer Joey Foster knew her well and respected her greatly.

“Loretta is topnotch,” he stated. “You walked into her office and she always greeted everyone with a smile. I’m sure she had her bad days, but you would never have known it. My wife, Cheryl and I go way back with Loretta; Gerald used to ride for Cheryl’s dad. No question: Loretta will definitely be missed!”

In addition to her LTBA duties, Romero is very active in the racing community with her service as vice-president for the Backstretch Benevolence Fund (BBF). The fund assists the many “behind the scenes” racetrack workers and their families as they tend to the care of racehorses.

Romero and many volunteers work tirelessly to raise money with several events throughout the year.

“Our annual banquet is the biggest fundraiser,” explained Romero. “We sell tables and hold a live and silent auction.”

“It is such fulfilling work,” added Romero. “I am part of a wonderful group of people and we have a very good time working for a great cause. Of course, there is no better person to lead the efforts than Chaplain Jimmy Sistrunk!”

And no surprise that Sistrunk thinks the world of Romero and her dedication to the countless people in the racing community.

“Loretta has so much energy and enthusiasm; she’s the “go to lady” for everybody,” acknowledged Sistrunk. “She has tremendous knowledge of our industry, but more than that, she has a heart for people. That is the top priority in our ministry and no one sets a higher standard than Loretta.”

Roger Heitzmann, executive director of the LTBA, acknowledged her tenure and contribution to the association.

“Loretta Romero provided over three decades of dedicated service to Louisiana Thoroughbred Breeders Association,” said Heitzmann. “She truly loved the Louisiana racing industry and always went the extra mile to assist horsemen. We thank Loretta for being such a vital part of our association, and wish her all the best.”

Fortunately for the many horsemen and people in the Louisiana racing community, Romero will continue to share her zest for helping people. She will still be fully involved with the Backstretch Benevolence Fund and its many programs.

Additionally, she will support her husband in the day-to-day operations on their farm. The couple has several broodmares and the high-energy Gerald oversees layups for several horsemen including Al

Cates and H. B. Johnson. On January 5, 2021, the couple will celebrate their 50th anniversary.

Romero is grateful for her tenure at Louisiana Thoroughbred Breeders Association and shares that her decision to retire was made after long and careful consideration.

“It has been an honor to serve this board and be a part of the staff of the LTBA,” said Romero. “I will never forget the colleagues and friends I have made in the horse industry. I have loved my job and I will look back on my time here with wonderful memories. All I can hope for is that my next chapter is as fulfilling as my time at LTBA.”

Martha Claussen served as publicity director at Sam Houston Race Park for ten years. She continues to be active in writing and racing publicity in Texas, Louisiana, Indiana, Oklahoma and other regions in North America.

OUR LOST LOVE

Half Ours-Lost Love Baby

The Tri-Star Racing LLC of Richard Robertson, Alan Dean and Mike Nash ended the year on the right note when their homebred Our Lost Love scored a front running victory in the Fifty-Seventh running of the Louisiana Futurity. The first three runnings of the race were run for both sexes. When the third running had enough entries it in to require it be split the decision to split it the next year by sex was made and has been continued since. In her victory Our Lost Love, a daughter of Half Ours, defeated prohibitive favorite Vacherie Girl who she lost to in the Louisiana Champions Day Lassie just fifteen days prior to the Louisiana Futurity. Our Lost Love is the first foal out of the unraced Private Vow dam, Lost Love Baby, who has a two-year-old colt by Custom For Carlos. Her victory in the Louisiana Futurity boosted her earnings to $94,820 with three wins from five starts.

Jimmy Creed-Evening Muse

In what seemed to be a roughly run race, with six of the starters listed in the chart as being bumped during some part of the race, the Colt and Gelding Division of the Louisiana Futurity was won by the Set-Hut LLC stable of Jake Delhomme when his X Clown prevailed by a neck. X Clown was bumped not only at the start by on both sides in the stretch run. The son of Jimmy Creed was purchased by Set-Hut at the Equine Sales of Louisiana yearling sale from the consignment of breeders Cynthia and Michael's Gemstone Farm for $62,000. Set-Hut had previously purchased X Clown's stakes placed half brother, Discreetly D, from the same consignor. X Clown previously won the Evangeline Downs Prince Stakes and is stakes placed in both the D.S. "Shine" Young Futurity and the Louisiana Legacy Stakes. His win in the Louisiana Futurity boosted his earnings to $141,980 with three wins from six starts.

LOUISIANA Champions Day 2019

by Gary McMillen

You had to pinch yourself to believe it. The 2019 edition of Louisiana Champions Day was special in terms of substance and feelings. For starters—the Fair Grounds received an early Christmas gift with sunny skies and 65 degree temperatures. Fans left their heavy jackets at home to soak in the blue bird weather. The seven stakes for Louisiana thoroughbreds included six horses (Midnight Fantasy, Minit to Stardom, Ours to Run, Chimney Rock, Budro Talking, and Trevilion) that had won, placed or run in a graded stakes. That lineup of class and quality was a first for Louisiana Champions Day.

Individual achievements on the day were highlighted by jockey Florent Geroux, who piloted a stakes triple aboard the winners of the Louisiana Champions Day Lassie, Juvenile and Ladies Turf. Trainer Allen Landry capped off the final two stakes of the day by saddling consecutive winners of the Louisiana Champions Day Ladies Turf and Sprint.

There was one historical constant to the 2019 Louisiana Champions Day event. Honoring the country's military service has become a tradition. This year, uniformed members of the Air Force, Navy, Coast Guard and Marines presented the colors for the Star Spangled Banner.

The 2019 Louisiana Champions Day honored the US Armed Forces, attracted sunshine and healthy crowds including Dr. Mike Strain, Commissioner of the Louisiana Department of Agriculture (below left).

The Spanish word for courage is “valiente” and Israel Flores’ Pound for Pound showed plenty of it when winning the $100,000 Louisiana Champions Day Classic. A true grinder in the old school tradition, Pound for Pound under jockey Aubrie Green stalked the pace from the outside, made his final bid at the sixteenth-pole then ran down long time leader Trevilion in late stretch to win by a half length.

“This horse has a ton of heart,” Green explained after unsaddling. “I wanted to be forward placed but I didn’t want the lead today. He seems to have a little more heart when he has something to chase.”

In the moments after a stakes race, the winner’s circle is a typical place of exuberant celebration and joy. You had to look close but, at least for one person, the winner’s circle after the Louisiana Champions Day Classic was a moment of deep and quiet satisfaction. You could see it in the smiling face of owner Israel Flores. From Houston, Texas, the polite, quiet and unassuming Flores has owned horses for over 50 years.

“Everything I’ve got in the barn are Louisiana-breds,” Israel explained. “I picked him from the sale for $5,000. I buy one or two horses a year for myself. This time I got lucky. You got to have a lot of luck in this business to keep going. I used to like boxing and that’s how we call our tough fighters—pound for pound. We don’t run our horses too much so we can keep them sound. In the summer we don’t run our horses but once a month. It’s too hot. In the winter you can run every two weeks.”

Stamina revealed. Bred by Jay Adcock and B&B Bloodstock, Pound for Pound is the 4-year-old complete son of Redding Colliery—Buttercup’s Song, by Unbridled Song that had never competed at the distance of nine furlongs.

Final time for the 1-1/8th mile Louisiana Champions Day Classic was 1:52.98.

daughter of Tapiture played with the field like a cat plays with a mouse.

Vacherie Girl broke sharp under Florent Geroux then was taken back to draft behind four horses across the track. Staying calm, Vacherie Girl launched her bid on the far turn. Her smooth strides put her in the thick of the fight at the top of the lane, where she found her gear and drew off.

Much the best, Vacherie Girl came home a 1-1/4 length winner in the final time of 1:12.01 for six furlongs.

Bryan Harang, President of Georgia Farms in Labadieville, Louisiana bred Vacherie Girl. "This Champions Day card today is loaded with quality," Harang said. "We (the breeding industry) might be going down in quantity but we are going up in quality. "You better have a race horse if you expect to come out on top against these types of horses.

Harang continued with a comment about Vacherie Girl's dam—Saucey Officer. "She always produced nice looking foals," Harang said. "They sold fairly well and always broke their maidens but after that they were hard to find."

Indications are that the undefeated Vacherie Girl will be easy to find. Trained by Steve Asmussen, Vacherie Girl is a filly with a future.

CHIMNEY ROCK

Artie Schiller-What's Your Point, by Wheaton

Owner: Three Diamonds Farm • Breeder: Stargazers LLC & Clear Creek Stud LLC

Trainer: Michael Maker • Jockey: Florent Geroux

Hodges Photography / Ann Switalski

North, South, East or West—it was a prestigious race track travel itinerary: Belmont, Saratoga, Kentucky Downs, Keeneland and Santa Anita.

For Three Diamonds Farm's 2-year-old colt Chimney Rock it was his first time under silks in the state of Louisiana. After a smashing victory in the $100,000 Louisiana Champions Day Juvenile, his competition was happy it would be a short visit.

Trained by Michael Maker, Chimney Rock was coming off a close second place finish in the Grade 2 Breeders Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint. Given that the bay son of Artie Schiller drew post position one in a field of twelve and had to hustled out of the gate there is acceptable speculation that he could have won that race.

The $100,000 Louisiana Champions Day Juvenile was Chimney Rock's first race on a dirt/fast track but that turned out to be an easy hill to climb. Sitting in the catbird seat down the backside, Chimney Rock (under jockey Florent Geroux) stalked the early pace, went to the front with ease at the top of the stretch and won going away with ears up at the wire.

"The dirt was no question for this horse," jockey Florent Geroux said. "He is a very talented horse. I was able to take a nice cozy spot in the race and we took it."

Breeder Ted Brandon was present to witness the convincing victory. "We bought the mare in Florida," Brandon recalled. "She hadn't produced a whole bunch but we bred her to Artie Schiller, which is a good nick for the turf. I think we will see this horse is much better going long on the grass than sprinting on dirt. I know you couldn't tell that by today's performance but there is no question that this horse will go long."

The win in the Louisiana Champions Day Juvenile boosted Chimney Rock's career earnings to $369,025.

NINETY ONE ASSAULT

Artie Schiller-Lilly Ladue, by Chief Three Sox

Owner: Thomas Morely and Paul Braverman • Breeder: Richey & Strode Stables, LLC

Trainer: Thomas Morley • Jockey: Shaun Bridgmohan

Thomas Morley and Paul Braverman's Ninety One Assault was on his toes while walking around the saddling paddock before the $100,000 Louisiana Champions Day Turf. Pushing his chest into the groom, the 6-year-old son of Artie Schiller was a bundle of energy and anticipation.

Once on the track and ready to fire, Ninety One Assault abandoned his inside trip under jockey Shaun Bridgmohan, fanned out five wide at the top of the stretch and came from out of the clouds to win by one length over another late closer Remembermis.

Ninety One Assault has a reputation of being a tough horse to handle and Bridgmohan knew that he had his hands full. "He's not an easy horse," Bridgmohan said. "He basically has a 3/16th of a mile run. He broke with me and I stayed with him the whole time. I had to be patient and just use his finish when I knew it counted."

The Louisiana Champions Day Turf was Ninety

One Assault's first stakes victory. Of his five career victories, four have been accomplished on the Fair Grounds turf course.

Trained by Thomas Morley, Ninety One Assault's final time for the 1-1/16th mile on the turf was 1:47.06.

If at first you don't succeed, try, try and try again. After multiple starters on Louisiana Champions Day, breeder Lora Pitre finally made it to the winner's circle when Net a Bear won the $100,000 Louisiana Champions

Day Ladies Turf.

"I had one run second once but that was a long time ago," Pitre said, who is the co-breeder with Elaine Carrol. "It's an awesome feeling. We have the momma and daddy on the farm. The dam is a big, tall chestnut. She is easy going when she wants to be and then mean as can be at other times. Net a Bear is a little bit like her folks. She can have an attitude."

Net a Bear showed plenty of attitude in the Champions Day Ladies Turf. Under Florent Geroux the 3-year-old bay filly was far off the early pace in the early stages. Getting into the bit, Net a Bear started to pass horses on the second turn. Once straightened for home she exploded at the 1/8th pole and galloped home to deliver a 12-1 upset.

The Louisiana Champions Day Ladies Turf was Net a Bear's first race at Fair Grounds.

The sophomore daughter of Awesome Bet—Edacious Reality, by Eddington is owned by Maximo Lamarche and Federico Deltoro and conditioned by high percentage trainer Allen Landry.

Songandaprayer-Laughing Saint, by Vindication

Owner: Rodney Verret • Breeder: J.E. Jumonville Jr. & Bunny Jumonville

Trainer: Allen Landry • Jockey: Colby Hernandez

Hodges Photography / Amanda Hodges Weir

Trainer Allen Landry gets 2nd stakes win of the day.

Rested and ready. Away from the races for more than four months and facing a full 12 horse field, the determined son of Songandaprayer engaged in a fast pace before taking command in mid-stretch. From there the 5-year-old gelding battled tooth and nail to the wire to prevail over Melissa Cantacuzene's 70-1 long-shot Takes Two to Tango and win by a length in the final time of 1:10.19.

"He's just a hard knocking horse," trainer Landry said. "He's never given us issues and we are very excited about this win."

Laughingsaintssong was ridden by the hot hand of Colby Hernandez and recorded his third straight sprint victory. Bred by J.E. Jumonville Jr and Bunny Jumonville, the hard trying Laughingsaintssong can point to 9 wins and 4 seconds from 22 career starts.

Trophy time. Outstanding trainer honors for Louisiana Champions Day go to Allen Landry. When Rodney Verret's Laughingsaintssong took down the $100,000 Louisiana Champions Day Sprint it was an impressive back-to-back stakes double for the veteran conditioner Landry.

MINIT TO STARDOM

Star Guitar-Wild About Marie, by Wildcat Heir

Owner: Brittlyn Stable, Inc. • Breeder: Brittlyn Stables, Inc.

Trainer: Jose Camejo • Jockey: Alex Cintron

Hold all tickets. Thanks to a steward's objection into the running of the $100,000 Louisiana Champions Day Ladies Sprint, Brittlyn Stable's home-bred Minit to Stardom retained her headliner status and was declared the winner.

Carrying top-weight of 124 lbs and ridden by Alex Cintron, the 4-year-old daughter of Star Guitar was in a dramatic stretch duel with Midnight Fantasy when the latter swerved out and interfered with Minit to Stardom. Midnight Fantasy prevailed to the wire two lengths clear but the stewards reviewed the replay and reversed the order of finish.

"You just don't realize how difficult it is to win these races," said relieved owner-breeder Evelyn Benoit. "It's very hard to win any race and I appreciate every one of them. I feel sorry for the #2 (Midnight Fantasy) because both of these horses were ready to run."

"She looked amazing today after all that traveling," Benoit continued about her filly that has now won five of her last six including the Grade 2 Honorable Miss Stakes at Saratoga. "Our filly has just had an incredible year. Without Star Guitar this would not be possible. And I just can't say enough about our young trainer Jose Camejo and what he has meant to our program. We don't want to change too much with her right now but Minit to Stardom might be better on the turf. We have big hopes."

A winning combination; jockey Alex Cintron has been in the irons for Minit to Stardom's last six races.

The 1:09.49 final time of the Louisiana Champions Day Ladies Sprint was the fastest six furlong clocking of the day.

REPRODUCTIVE VETERINARY SERVICES CAN ASSIST MARES AND STALLIONS

Breeding horses is often challenging; it sometimes takes a dedicated team of mare or stallion managers and reproductive veterinarians to maximize pregnancy rates. Many farm veterinarians do an excellent job, sometimes assisted by reproductive specialists at equine hospitals or universities when working with a problem mare or stallion.

Maria Schnobrich DMD, DACP (boarded theriogenologist at the LeBlanc Center for Reproduction, Rood and Riddle) works with her repro group at Rood and Riddle and several universities looking at ways to improve fertility.

Make Sure The Mare Is Suitable For Breeding

Thoroughbred mares entering a breeding shed are often required to have a “suitable for mating” examination by a veterinarian. “This will determine whether a mare’s reproductive tract is healthy, and if the mare is ready for breeding (appropriate stage of estrous cycle) and will tolerate a stallion breeding by natural cover. We use a combination of physical examination, trans-rectal palpation and ultrasound of the reproductive tract and vaginoscopy, as well as obtaining a clean endometrial culture (free of bacterial growth) and normal endometrial cytology, prior to breeding. We check for any abnormalities that could reduce likelihood of a successful mating or might be potentially harmful to the stallion,” says Schnobrich.

“Abnormalities would include evidence of sexually transmissible diseases (coital exanthema or EHV-3), large amounts of fluid in the uterus, evidence of infection or urine pooling, or conformational abnormalities that could be a problem during mating. We also obtain a culture and cytology before breeding, to ensure there is no evidence of clinical infection or excessive inflammation,” says Schnobrich.

Any problems need to be dealt with and resolved before the mare is bred. “We may not have 100% evidence that there are no issues, but at this point in time these are the most routine, thorough, and practical things we can do. Sending a mare that is not suitable uses up valuable covers for a stallion and (in the case of transmissible diseases) may pose risk for the breeding population.”

It is important to have mares in good body condition—not overly fat or thin. Too fat is worse than being underweight. Mares that are somewhat thin but gaining weight are more likely to cycle properly and become pregnant. “It is well known in other domestic species like sheep, that if they are ‘flushed’—on an increasing plane of nutrition before breeding—they are more fertile and have higher pregnancy rates. We try to have mares in proper body condition and gaining weight going into January,” she says.

Being current on appropriate vaccinations is also important, following the AAEP guidelines for pregnant mares. “In the fall it may also be helpful to vaccinate with the new equine vaccine for Leptospirosis pomona to help prevent pregnancy loss. As far as we know, there have been no abortions reported from leptospirosis in mares that have been vaccinated.” Vaccinations against equine herpes virus (EHV-1) should be administered at 3, 5, 7, and 9 months of gestation to aid in prevention of equine abortion.

“We also try to address any systemic health issues, lameness, chronic pain, etc. Mares should be screened for overall health, and checked for equine endocrine disorders such as equine metabolic syndrome (EMS) or Pituitary Pars Intermedia Dysfunction (PPID or Cushings) sometime in the fall/winter before breeding season. Make sure any pathology is well regulated for at least 60 days coming into breeding season,” she says.

At the end of breeding season it is just as important to make sure mares are in good reproductive health if they are not pregnant. “Any reproductive surgeries that need to be done should be taken care of before next breeding season. These might include cervical repairs, perineal body reconstruction (after foaling injuries), and urethral extensions to prevent urine pooling. Many chronically infected mares continually collect urine in the uterus, and are not diagnosed or addressed,” says Schnobrich.

“You also want a clean endometrial culture and cytology. It is very detrimental to the mare’s reproductive tract to go through the whole winter with an infection. It is imperative to clear it up to protect and optimize uterine health for the next year.”

Uterine cysts and oviduct pathology are usually addressed in early January to allow time for resolution of any inflammation caused by these procedures, but not so far away from breeding that a mare might develop new cysts or reocclude an oviduct. “New advances in treatment for oviduct pathologies include hysteroscopic flushing or application of prostaglandins on the oviduct or its opening into the uterus. If we suspect a plugged oviduct (which occurs in a small subset of mares) we may apply prostaglandins to the oviduct or flush it,” she says.

Because the Thoroughbred breeding season starts early, it is also important to make sure mares are under lights at the appropriate time and that lighting is adequate so mares can go through the transition from anestrus to cycling early. Manipulation of breeding season can be accomplished by providing 14 to 16 hours of light daily, starting at least 8 to 10 weeks prior to the breeding season. This regimen is typically begun on December 1st.

Specialized Reproductive Facilities

There are times a certain mare (or stallion) might be sent to a specialist or referral facility where specific problems could be more fully evaluated and addressed. Several referral clinics/hospitals have specialists who do this. Your veterinarian may be able to do what is needed, or may want to work with a specialist to get some answers or further treatment options. Sometimes it takes a team effort, working together.

“We do breeding soundness exams and assist equine reproduction with traditional and routine breeding work, but if a mare or stallion needs more advanced assistance we can do some of these procedures. We also have horses referred to us for more advanced diagnostics,” Schnobrich says.

“Usually we get these at the end of breeding season when a mare has not become pregnant, and the resident veterinarian has run out of options. Probably the most helpful thing we can do is a hysteroscopic exam where we look into the uterus. We often do this with mares that have had persistent infections. We generally find they have adhesions, foreign bodies or scarring in the uterus. In my opinion this type of exam is a very important tool because there are mares that are chronically ‘dirty’ yet you can’t determine why. A mare owner might spend thousands of dollars trying to figure out and resolve the infection and never get her cleared up,” says Schnobrich.

Some problems won’t show up with ultrasound. “When we go in with the scope we might find there is serious scarring, that cannot be detected by ultrasound. We’ve seen mares with uterine horns closed off, or huge scars or adhesions that would prevent pregnancy from developing normally, but you wouldn’t know it from any other test except the hysteroscopic exam. This exam and a biopsy are very helpful tools for the owner to have realistic expectations about the mare, and we could potentially diagnose something that was previously undiagnosed,” she says.

Some of these problems can be addressed and resolved, and some might not be resolvable. “Either way, we need to know. With some mares, owners and veterinarians have tried for a number of years to get them in foal, unsuccessfully, and then we check them and find the uterus is too scarred to carry a pregnancy. Not knowing that condition, you could waste a lot of money trying to get them pregnant.”

The Stallion

One thing we can do to try to optimize pregnancy rates is look at a stallion’s previous fertility and what percentage of his mares became pregnant. “If you ask the stud farm about how a certain stallion has done in the past, it is important to ask two questions,” says Schnobrich.

“One is his per-cycle pregnancy rate (settling a mare on her first cycle) the previous year, and this is the most important question. The per-cycle rate should be above 60% and is a more sensitive indication of a stallion’s fertility. Per-cycle pregnancy rate measures how efficient a stallion is at establishing a pregnancy. The other question is his end-of-season pregnancy rate; of the mares bred, how many did he get pregnant that season,” says Schnobrich.

According to Stephanie Walbornn, DVM, DACT (theriogenologist at Rood and Riddle) a stallion can have a very low per-cycle pregnancy rate, but still have a high end-of-season pregnancy rate, given enough time to rebreed the mares. “This is because the seasonal pregnancy rate does not take into account how many times the same mare is bred, over consecutive cycles. Thus seasonal pregnancy rate can be an overestimation of the true number of pregnancies a stallion can obtain. Increasing the number of times a stallion breeds the same mare (over several cycles) increases the amount of physical work for that stallion and costs for both the stallion and mare owners. Ideally, one cover per mare would result in a pregnancy,” says Walbornn.

In the Thoroughbred industry it is important to have foals born early, so we want mares bred and settled as soon as possible. “You don’t want to breed to a stallion that takes multiple tries. If he is batting 40% or lower per cycle, there may be additional management techniques needed, to try to improve those percentages,” she says.

“With natural cover we can perform reinforced breeding. Some studies have shown that this can help stallions who have low per-cycle pregnancy rates. After he covers a mare, the dismount sample is taken, extended, and inseminated into the mare’s uterus. With some stallions, this technique is beneficial,” Walbornn says.

Schnobrich says most stud farms utilize management procedures to help these stallions, such as limiting book size, limiting covers to just two per day--spread very far apart--and reinforcement breeding. It is important for mare owners or managers to ask about these things and find out whether this is being done. “Often your own veterinarian can be there at the breeding to do the reinforcement breeding, or the stud farm may provide a veterinarian, or they may be able to do it themselves, but this is something to think about, to optimize the mare’s chances to settle to that breeding,” says Schnobrich.

Walbornn says some stallions may need an increased number of covers per day to improve their pregnancy rate. “These stallions are known as ‘accumulators’. They accumulate sperm within their accessory sex glands (ampullae) which can prevent the ejaculated sperm from reaching the urethra and being deposited into the mare’s uterus. If only a small quantity of abnormal stagnant sperm is being deposited into their uterus, mares may not become pregnant,” she says.

“Management techniques for these stallions include increasing the number of covers per day, administering ecbolic agents such as oxytocin or prostaglandin F2 alpha prior to breeding, or transrectal massage of the ampullae prior to breeding. Regardless of the reason for low per-cycle or seasonal pregnancy rate, it is important to try to maximize chances of pregnancy by optimizing fertility in both the stallion and mare,” says Walbornn.

“In general, horses are very fertile, and when using live cover we assume that for each mating there should be about a 65 to 70% chance the mare will conceive,” says Schnobrich.

NEW YEAR, NEW DECADE, NEW LHRA?

New year, new decade, new LHRA?

Well, probably not. In the past ten years we at Louisiana Horse Rescue Association have learned a lot of additional things about operating an entirely volunteer-run and totally donation-funded 501(c)3, some we already knew but it is always good to have a reminder!

There are a lot of horses out there that have benefitted from everything we have learned, over 300 to be exact, but that isn't entirely the total sum of our product. In the past decade LHRA has cared for and re-homed horses, educated the public, testified at abuse trials, trained volunteers, hosted media events and done a fair amount of fund-raising.

By doing these things, we like to think that we have made a difference in a few people's lives as well, which is part of the reason we do what we do. As President, I am mostly just the handsome face (debatable perhaps?) that everyone sees or the voice behind the microphone, but in the past decade there have certainly been a few hard-working people who actually make the wheels go around: Linda at Louisiana Horse Magazine, Therese our vigilant accountant, Michelle our intrepid V.P., Roger at LTBA, the Louisiana HBPA and Kelly our new adoption coordinator are a few of the movers and shakers that help us move and shake along.

LHRA has been a viable equine rescue for over 15 years, so we have had time to learn lots of lessons of our own and share our experiences with others. Some of the questions we get the most include:

What happens to a dollar that gets donated to LHRA?

How can a person help LHRA?

How does LHRA find homes for horses?

How can someone start their own equine rescue?

Are there other rescues that do the same thing as LHRA?

Not all of the answers are simple, but I will try to summarize them as best I know how.

What happens to a dollar that gets donated to LHRA?

With all of the negative news around the horseracing industry, we certainly have seen a decrease in donations and an increase in questions! The best part about LHRA being a local, Louisiana 501(c)3 is that anyone can come lay hands on our horses and say "I donated money to feed this horse", mostly because 100% of the money we take in goes to our horses - we are, and have always been a completely volunteer organization.

How can a person help LHRA?

For a person to physically help with our rescue mission there are several options. Contact us about fostering a rescue horse, which pretty much means that you take over the care and expense of the horse while we are finding it a new home, or for our sanctuary horses while they live out the remainder of their lives.

We try to discourage people from coming out to pet, brush or look at horses unless you are an experienced horse person or trainer not afraid to get dirty and sweat or bleed a little. Just kidding about the bleeding part. Ok, not really kidding.

We also accept donations of hay and horse feed, but please nothing we have to come get or nothing old and moldy. Just like our volunteers, we prefer fresh and palatable.

How does LHRA find homes for horses?

LHRA finds homes for horses through word of mouth, the internet and we rely heavily on social media as well.

When LHRA is unable to take in a horse, sometimes we can help the owner or animal shelter in question by posting pictures and information about the horse and asking for help from our 15,000+ members.

LHRA is home to many older, injured horses that are considered "sanctuary" horses, but on occasion someone will adopt a sanctuary horse just to have a companion horse for one of their other horses.

How can someone start their own equine rescue?

For those wanting to start their own equine rescue, we always caution them that they will need to always have a plan to feed and care for the sanctuary horses long after all of the young and shiny horses are adopted out. This is always on our mind and is a large part of our budget every year.

Are there other rescues that do the same thing as LHRA?

There are some great people in the equine and racing aftercare “industry”, in particular Victoria Keith and Rick Porter of the National Thoroughbred Welfare Organization. I like to call them one of the “legit” organizations that would certainly be accredited by LHRA if we were bold enough to label ourselves as any type of sanctioning body. We have also seen several illegitimate, so-called “rescue” organizations, of late the infamous Thompson horse slaughter ring and Dina Alborano’s #Icareihelp disaster which is currently fraught with arrest warrants and was just was charged with embezzling over $250,000 dollars into personal bank accounts.

This has been a brief summary of how Louisiana Horse Rescue Association is operating and how we are going into this new decade. LHRA is always hopeful that new sources of funding are just around the corner, but we are so thankful to our donors that make it possible for us to operate in the now. Please consider getting involved in some way, if not with LHRA then with some other “legit” rescue, or foster a horse on your own. It is a great responsibility to breed animals of any kind and insure they have good care for the rest of their lives, so a special “thank you” goes out to all of you who do just that! You can find us at www.louisianahorserescue.com or on Facebook at www.facebook.com/lhra1, your support, of any kind, is always appreciated!

BREEDING NEWS

Secret Circle Relocating to Elite Thoroughbreds

Secret Circle, the winner of two Breeder' Cup races, is being relocated from Kentucky to Michele Rodriguez's Elite Thoroughbreds in Louisiana in a deal brokered by Chad Schumer of Schumer Bloodstock.

A brilliantly fast horse for Bob Baffert, Secret Circle won the 2011 Sentient Jet Breeders' Cup Juvenile Sprint and two years later captured the Xpressbet Breeders' Cup Sprint (G1). Out of 16 lifetime starts, the son of Eddington was winner or runner-up in 10 graded stakes. He retired with more than $3.67 million in earnings.

Secret Circle becomes the first Breeders' Cup Sprint winner to stand in Louisiana and is one of the richest horses to ever stand in the state.

"Secret Circle presents an unprecedented opportunity for Louisiana breeders to use a Breeder' Cup Sprint champion" said Schumer. "His first crop has already shown tremendous promise, including Reach The Circle, who came close to winning the Louisiana Futurity."

Secret Circle was represented by 10 winners during his freshman season last year, which also included Arlington-Washington Futurity runner-up Woopigsooie.

Bred by Willmott Stables in Kentucky, Secret Circle is the second foal out of the Dixieland Band stakes winner Ragtime Hope. Sold for $165,000 as a two-year-old at

On Louisiana Champions Day at Fair Grounds, LTBA gave away two scholarships in the amount of $1,000 each to lucky drawing winners. Pictured (l-r) Louisiana State Representative Beryl Amadée; LTBA President Warren Harang; scholarship winner Lauren Schexnider, University of Louisiana at Lafayette; Louisiana State Representative Polly Thomas; LTBA board member Tom Early; scholarship winner Patrick Meehan, Louisiana State University.

On December 7 in conjunction with College Day at Fair Grounds, LTBA and Fair Grounds together gave away four scholarships in the amount of $1,000 each to lucky drawing winners. Pictured (l-r) Scholarship winners: Justin Ready, University of Holy Cross; Melinda Doan, Xavier University; Son Pham, Franciscan Missionaries of Our Lady University; and Tayla Hood, Nicholls State University.

OBS, he wound up racing for long-time partners Mike Pegram, Karl Watson, and Paul Weitman.

Secret Circle was unbeaten in three starts at 2 and at 3 won the Southwest Stakes (G3) and Rebel Stakes (G2) before finishing runner up to Bodemeister in the Arkansas Derby (G1). Cutting back in distance as an older horse, Secret Circle added victories in the Breeders' Cup Sprint at 4 and the Dubai Golden Shaheen Sponsored by Gulf News (G1) at 6 to his résumé. He also was runner up in a second renewal of the Breeders' Cup Sprint at 5 prior to finishing second in the Cigar Mile Handicap (G1).

Secret Circle entered stud at Hill 'n' Dale Farms near Lexington and stood for $5,000 for four seasons. At Elite Thoroughbreds, he will stand for a 2020 fee of $3,000 live foal. He joins resident stallions Apriority, Catalina Red, My Pal Charlie, Sassicaia, and Tenpins.

Graded Stakes-Siring Peppered Cat Relocates To Louisiana

Peppered Cat, a veteran stallion whose offspring includes the multiple graded stakes winner Pepper Crown, has been purchased privately by Perry and Denise Martin of Martin Racing and relocated from California to stand at Val Murrell's Clear Creek Stud in Folsom, Louisiana for the 2020 breeding season.

A California stalwart since he retired to the breeding shed as a multiple winner in 2005, the 19-year-old son of Tabasco Cat most recently stood at Daehling Ranch in Elk Grove. From 12 crops of racing age, he has sired 67 winners from 85 starters, and is represented by lifetime progeny earnings of $4,253,371 and average earnings per starter of $50,040.

His seven black-type runners are led by Pepper Crown, a $472,298-earner who won Golden Gate Fields' Berkeley Handicap (G3) and San Francisco Mile Stakes (G3) in 2014.

Produced by Meadowlake's Grade 3-winning daughter Morning Meadow, Peppered Cat is a half-brother to the dam of 2015 Hopeful Stakes (G1) winner Ralis and the multiple graded stakes-placed, multiple stakes winner B Squared.

Peppered Cat's 2020 fee is $3,000 live foal guarantee, payable when foal stands and nurses, or $1,500 live foal guarantee, payable September 1, 2020. He stands for the partnership of Martin Racing and Clear Creek Stud, and is nominated to Breeders' Cup.

Givemeaminit, Trust Factor Retire to Clear Creek Stud

Clear Creek Stud is adding two newly retired stakes winners to the stallion roster at their Folsom Louisiana facility.

Valene Farms LLC has retired G1 placed stakes winner Givemeaminit to the breeding shed. The son of Star Guitar ran 3rd in the G1 Hopeful Stakes at two and was a contender for the Breeders' Cup Juvenile, coming in fourth.

At three, he won the Louisiana Champions Day Sprint, ran second in the G3 Pat Day mile, and was voted Louisiana Champion Three-Year-Old Colt or Gelding for the year.

His total race record was three wins, four seconds and two thirds from seventeen starts for earnings of $428,580. He enters stud for a fee of $2,500 payable September 1, live foal guarantee or $3,000 payable when foal stands and nurses.

Multiple stake winner, Trust Factor, will begin his stud career at Clear Creek Stud this year.

A son of Grade I winner Paddy O'Prado, Trust Factor won the Louisiana Legends Turf as a four year old at Louisiana Downs when the turf course was not in use at Evangeline Downs, then repeated the feat the next year when the race was once again contested at its home track. He also won the Dixie Poker Ace at Fair Grounds and is stakes placed in the Louisiana Cup Classic, Mr. Sulu, Louisiana Champions Day Turf, Costa Rising and the Dixie Poker Ace.

Trust Factor earned $335,958 in his eighteen start career with eight of those being stakes races that he either won or placed in. Trust Factor will stand for a fee of $1,500 payable September 1st live foal guarantee or $2,000 payable when foal stands and nurses.

Mares Bred in Louisiana Drops 12.5% in 2019

The Jockey Club released Report of Mares Bred (RMB) statistics for the 2019 breeding season. Based on RMBs received through October 16, 2019, The Jockey Club reports that 1,134 stallions covered 29,218 mares in North America during 2019.

The Jockey Club estimates an additional 2,500 to 3,500 mares will be reported as bred during the 2019 breeding season.

The number of stallions declined 6.6% from the 1,214 reported at this time in 2018, and the number of mares bred decreased 3.5% from the 30,274 reported last year.

Consistent with prior years' reporting of stallions by book size, the number of stallions covering 125 or more mares increased from 62 in 2018 to 65 in 2019.

Further book size analysis shows a 6.7% increase in the number of mares bred to stallions with a book size of 125 or more in 2019 when compared to 2018 as reported at this time last year; a 9.1% decrease in mares bred to stallions with a book size between 100 and 124; a 9.1% decrease in mares bred to stallions with a book size between 75 and 99; a 16.7% decrease in mares bred to stallions with a book size between 50 and 74; a 12.4% decrease in mares bred to stallions with a book size between 25 and 49; and a 1.0% increase in mares bred to stallions with a book size fewer than 25.

The percentage of broodmares covered by stallions serving 125 or more mares increased from 31.9% in 2018 to 35.3% in 2019. From 2015-2017, this percentage had remained fairly constant at approximately 29%, up from 20.5% in 2014.

The proportion of stallions with book sizes of 125 or more mares grew from 5.1% in 2018 to 5.7% in 2019. It had previously grown from 3.1% in 2014 to 4.5% from 2015-2017.

RMB statistics for all reported stallions in 2019 are available through the Fact Book section of The Jockey Club's website at jockeyclub.com.

The stallions Justify and Mendelssohn led all stallions with 252 mares bred by each in 2019. Rounding out the top five by number of RMBs were Into Mischief, 241; Uncle Mo, 241; and Goldcents, 239.

Kentucky traditionally leads North America in Thoroughbred breeding activity. During 2019, Kentucky's 220 reported stallions covered 17,123 mares, or 58.6% of all of the mares reported bred in North America. The number of mares bred to Kentucky stallions decreased 1.1% percent compared with the 17,322 reported at this time last year.

Of the top 10 states and provinces by number of mares reported bred in 2019, Pennsylvania and Oklahoma stallions covered more mares in 2019 than in 2018, as reported at this time last year.

Texas 2-Year-Olds in Training Sale Moved to April 3

The Texas 2-Year-Olds in Training and Horses of Racing Age Sale will be held April 3, 2020, at Lone Star Park. The date was originally set for March 31 but has been pushed back to better fit with the national sales schedule and with the start of the Lone Star Park Thoroughbred meet. The breeze show will be held April 1. Presented by the Texas Thoroughbred Association and Lone Star Park, the sale will also include a horses of racing age session.

"We've already seen some added interest from consignors and potential buyers now that purses are on the upswing in Texas thanks to recent legislation," said Tim Boyce, sales director. "Sam Houston Race Park has announced a lucrative purse structure for their upcoming meet, and Lone Star Park is also expected to have larger purses this year. I expect there to be added demand for the Texas-breds in this sale now that buyers will have a chance to run for some nice money this summer, including the $100,000-estimated Texas Thoroughbred Futurity in two divisions for sale grads."

Incentive and Bonus Programs Announced for Texas 2-Year-Olds and Horses of Racing Age Sale

The Texas Thoroughbred Association has announced two new programs to make buying, selling and racing horses in Texas more lucrative for horsemen. The Texas 2-Year-Olds in Training and Horses of Racing Age Sale, set for April 3 at Lone Star Park at Grand Prairie, will offer a rebate program for consignors and a purse bonus program for graduates of the sale.

Thanks for the passage of H.B. 2463, which injects up to $25 million annually into the Texas horse industry, funds are available that will be used to rebate up to half of the $500 consignment fee for all horses entered in the sale who pass through the ring, even those that are not Texas-breds.

All sale graduates (horses that pass through the ring), again including horses not bred in Texas, will be eligible for a purse bonus program with money paid out to owners of horses finishing first, second or third in any races at Texas tracks in 2020. The amount of the bonus payouts will be based on a percentage of purse earnings which will depend on the number of eligible horses hitting the board in Texas races, but it will be administered similarly to the Accredited Texas-Bred Program with the money being paid out in January 2021 for all races through December 31, 2020.

“The goal of these new programs is to encourage horsemen to buy and sell their horses in Texas, and then to keep those horses racing in Texas to add to what already creates a significant impact on the state’s agricultural and overall economy,” said Mary Ruyle, executive director of the TTA. “We’ve already seen more interest in Texas racing and breeding with the boosted purse structure at the current Sam Houston Race Park meet. We expect that to continue at Lone Star Park and Retama Park, and we believe these programs will only enhance that interest and participation.”

Talamo Hits 2,000-Win Milestone

More than 13 years after he collected the first win of his career in his native Louisiana, jockey Joe Talamo picked up his 2,000th victory with Rizzi's Honors in Thursday's fifth race at Los Alamitos in Cypress, Calif.

The 3-5 favorite against five opponents in the $20,351 starter allowance, the 6-year-old With Distinction mare pressed the issue while wide early, but kicked clear inside the final eighth to win by four lengths for owners Lee Drummond and Joe Riso and trainer Mark Glatt.

Talamo, who will turn 30 Jan. 12, was joined in the winner's circle by his wife Elizabeth and his two young sons Dominic and Vincent, longtime agent Scotty McClellan and several of his fellow riders.

“Scotty and I have been together for about 13 years so it was pretty special to have him here today. It's hard to believe I've been riding this long.”

Talamo, who is going to ride in California through Jan. 5 before he begins competing at Oaklawn Park, which starts its meet Jan. 24, earned his initial victory July 7, 2006, aboard Well Heavens Sake at Louisiana Downs. His 1,000th win came April 5, 2012, at Santa Anita aboard Splendid Fortune for Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert.

Riding 3-5 favorite Cavallotto in the fourth race, McMahon delivered a front-running score in the one-mile claiming event to secure the 1,000th victory of his career. Cavallotto is trained by Karl Broberg, who in 2019 finished as the leading conditioner by wins in North America for the sixth straight season.

The 2019 season proved a bounce-back year for McMahon as his mounts earned more than $2.5 million in purses. That earnings mark is the most for McMahon since 2016 when his mounts earned nearly $5 million. Among North American jockeys in 2019, he ranked 52nd in wins with 148, his best total since 216 in 2016—which ranked 13th.

In that 2016 season, McMahon captured three grade 3 stakes: guiding Texas Chrome to victory in the Super Derby and Oklahoma Derby and winning the Texas Mile Stakes with Great Minds.

McMahon grew up in rural Louisiana and began galloping horses by the time he was an 8-year-old. He launched his professional career at age 16 in 2011 and has ridden regularly in Louisiana, Texas, Oklahoma, Indiana, Kentucky, and Florida.

OBITUARIES

Donna B. Brown

Donna Bean Brown passed away on Wednesday, December 18, 2019 at the age of 64.

Donna was the farm manager for Brown's Thoroughbred Farm, a true horse woman that raised and raced many winning racehorses over the years. She was also a member LAHBPA and LTBA.

Survivors include her loving husband and best friend, Danny Mack Brown; daughter Misty Brown Spiers (Jason), grandchildren Jacob, Dylan, Jady (Tater) and Xander Spiers, and many beloved friends and family.

Gerald Libersat, Sr.

Gerald David Libersat, Sr., 79, died Monday, November 4, 2019 at his residence.

Libersat was past president and board member of the Abbeville Harbor and Terminal District for 31 years, Board of Directors of Bank of Abbeville, Chamber of Commerce for over 10 years, serving as president 1986-1987, Woodmen of the World Association member for over 15 years. Retired owner of Murphy's Lease and Welding.

Besides his ultimate passion toward his family, his other great passion was his love of horse racing. Throughout his 32 years in the industry he has been recognized as a leading owner and breeder with an impressive career including 159 wins, 147 second wins and 167 third place finishes.

With the help of his son and trainer, Kevin Broussard, together some of their greatest accomplishments include winning 30+ year Breeder Award, along with setting numerous track records and being a leader in the industry. He has also served as president of the Louisiana Quarter Horse Breeders Association.

Gerald is survived by his caretaker and loving wife of 37 years, Julie; son, Kevin and his wife Jill; daughters, Keri, Shannon and Lisa; nine grandchildren, Brock, Jacob, Colin, Jenna, Anna, Kaitlyn, Kylie, Brooks and Barrett; and four great grandchildren.

provision was passed by the House of Representatives on Tuesday by a vote of 297-120 as part of a larger tax package.

"We appreciate the Senate's work to include this important provision," said NTRA President and Chief Executive Officer Alex Waldrop. "We especially applaud the efforts of Leader McConnell, who does so much to support Kentucky's signature industry."

Uniform three-year racehorse depreciation was among numerous tax provisions across many industries that either expired at the beginning of 2018 or this year, or were set to expire as of Jan. 1, 2020. The bill reinstates the 3-year schedule for all racehorses retroactive to 2018 and through 2020.

The provision allows taxpayers to depreciate, on a three-year schedule, racehorses 24 months of age and younger when purchased and placed into service, as opposed to a seven-year schedule.

Three-year racehorse depreciation was most recently available to the industry in 2017 but Congress did not renew it for 2018 as part of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (TCJA) passed in December 2017. The TCJA did include 100% bonus depreciation and a $1 million Sec. 179 expense allowance for qualified depreciable property, two important investment incentives that lessened the need for three-year depreciation in many cases. However, three-year depreciation continues to be a beneficial option for many racehorse owners, especially racing partnerships with multiple passive owners, as it better aligns deductions with corresponding income opportunities on an annual basis.

Maintaining the three-year recovery period for racehorse purchases has been a top legislative priority for the NTRA federal legislative team since the provision's initial enactment as part of the 2008 Farm Bill.

Randy Romero Pure Courage Award to Honor A Jockey Overcoming Adversity

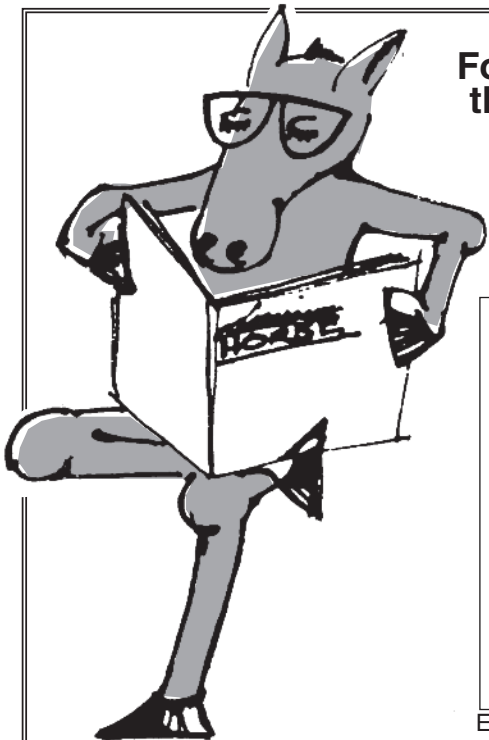

Following the death of Hall of Fame jockey Randy Romero this past summer at 61, supporters in his native Louisiana are keeping his legacy alive at Fair Grounds Race Course & Slots in New Orleans. Besides the track naming a race after the famed jockey—the Feb. 1 Randy P. Romero Memorial Stakes—a group of nine friends have created the Randy Romero Pure Courage Award to honor a North American jockey who, like Romero, battled back from injury and adversity to achieve success.

The recipient of the award will receive a bronze trophy in a presentation at Fair Grounds on Louisiana Derby Day March 21, organizer Rick Mocklin said.

Romero, a winner of 4,294 races and $75.2 million in earnings over a career from 1973-99, was the regular rider of such elite distaffers as Go For Wand and Personal Ensign, with whom he teamed to win the Breeders' Cup Distaff (G1) in 1988 to finish an unbeaten career. He won 122 graded stakes and riding titles at 10 tracks, including Belmont Park, Arlington Park, Gulfstream Park, Keeneland, and Fair Grounds.

He managed to do this despite a slew of injuries that shortened his career and left him fighting pain for much of the second half of his life.

Among these injuries was a near-fatal sauna explosion at Oaklawn Park that burned 60% of his body in 1983, after which he contracted hepatitis C from blood transfusions during skin graft operations. He returned to riding 14 months after the Oaklawn accident.

The 1990s brought more physical setbacks, including when Go For Wand was fatally injured in the 1990 Breeders' Cup Distaff and Romero crashed to the ground, breaking eight ribs and a bone in his shoulder. He finished riding later that decade, with Mocklin acting as his agent for a couple of those years.

"He went through so many things that 10 riders might not go through in their career, but Randy was always looking to ride again," Mocklin said. "No matter what the injury was, he was looking when he could ride again and get back in the saddle."

The goal of the Randy Romero Pure Courage Award is to honor a rider who shows the same kind of determination.

Mocklin said the nine people organizing the award—which include trainer Dallas Stewart and Kentucky restaurateur Tommy Walters—are funding the trophy's purchase and will vote to determine the winner.

States to fill temporary non-agricultural jobs. There is a statutory cap on the total number of foreign nationals who may be issued an H-2B visa or otherwise granted H-2B status during a fiscal year. Congress has set the H-2B cap at 66,000 per fiscal year, with a maximum of 33,000 available during the first half of any given fiscal year and 33,000 for workers who begin employment in the second half of the fiscal year.

For the past several fiscal years, demand for H-2B visas has far outpaced the supply, so many employers, including trainers, have been denied the H-2B visas they need to operate their businesses.

If the spending bill is passed, Congress will delegate to the secretary the authority to allocate visas above the 66,000 cap if the secretary determines, after consultation with the secretary of labor, that the needs of American businesses could not be satisfied with U.S workers who are willing, qualified, and able to perform temporary non-agricultural labor. The bill would potentially increase the total number to 130,716 new and returning H-2B foreign temporary workers, according to DHS estimates.

Once signed into law, the NTRA legislative team, through its membership in the H-2B Workforce Coalition, will work with other industries such as hotel/hospitality, landscaping, and seafood processing that also rely heavily on the H-2B visa program to convince the secretary to allocate the full number of visas authorized by the 2020 spending bill.

Purses Up, Pari-Mutuel Handle Down in 2019

For all of racing's problems in 2019, there certainly were plenty of locations where horsemen had reason for optimism behind strong purses. But, there most assuredly are numbers of concern in the year-end economic indicators released Jan. 6 by Equibase.

Fueled by strong purse growth in Kentucky—specifically Churchill Downs—purses for races in the United States increased 4.5% in 2019 to $1,167,921,650 compared with 2018. It's the second straight season of strong growth for U.S. purses as they improved 3.5% in 2018.

Removing Breeders' Cup purses from the equation, Churchill realized a nearly $21 million increase in purses, largely fueled by its successful historical gaming operation in Louisville. At the four Kentucky tracks which offered historical gaming in 2019—Churchill, Ellis Park, Keeneland, and Kentucky Downs—purses increased $25,716,560 to $104,081,494. That increase accounts for more than half of the $50.2 million purse increase at U.S. tracks this year.

Also seeing a strong increase was Oaklawn Park, which has enjoyed several strong years. During this upward trend, it initially fueled purse increases with historical gaming, then added games of skill, and in April 2019 launched casino gaming. The Hot Springs, Ark., track added two race days and more than $5.17 million in purses in 2019—up 18% compared with 2018.

This year's U.S. purse total is the highest since 2007, a pre-Great Recession year with more than $1.18 billion in purses. Compared with 2007 this year's purses were recorded at a time of reduced racing—down 42%. Considering that reduction in racing, the average purse per race in 2019 compared with 2007 is up 40.2% to $32,256.

While purses improved in 2019, the rash of breakdowns at Santa Anita Park that forced the Southern California track to halt racing after its March 8 card before reopening March 29, likely impacted pari-mutuel wagering. Wagering on U.S. races in 2019 was down 2% to $11,038,790,395 compared with last year.

That 2% decline ends a four-year stretch that had year-over-year purse increases from 2015-18— including a 3.3% bump last year— the first full year that modernized

U.S. Treasury and Internal Revenue Service regulations kept more winnings in the hands of players. But in 2019 that strong run ended.

The Equibase numbers indicate that the first half of the year saw a 3.23% drop in wagering on U.S. races. That decline was reduced in the second half of the year, where wagering was down 0.66%— although it still failed to improve year over year compared with the second half of 2018.

Race days were similar in 2019 compared with 2018, down 0.16% to 4,425 (off just seven days), and total races were down 1% to 36,207.

Despite those race reductions, average field size declined 1.56% to 7.53 starters per race.

David Tillson

Warren Harang called the meeting to order and asked Roger Heitzmann to call the roll. A quorum was present and the meeting was ready to proceed with business.

Jake Delhomme led us in prayer.

Warren presented the By-Law changes that were agreed upon at the meeting following the retreat. He requested if all were agreed upon or is more work needed.

Danny Guidry asked how the meeting went with Chris Warren, Corey Veazey, and John Simon concerning changes we as the Louisiana Thoroughbred Breeders Association would like to see made at Delta Downs and Evangeline Downs in order to assist the association with attracting breeders to the state. Both Jake Delhomme and Brett Brinkman explained to the board the initial resistance and the true understanding the group held following the meeting. The perception and the feeling were different following the meeting for the groups working together.

Discussion took place about other ideas we can possibly come back to them with in the future. The feeling of the board was that we are happy that they are willing to work with us.

Warren requested that we begin with the rule changes beginning with the membership changes. He wanted to know if everyone was good with the changes.

Val Murrell voiced his concern with the changes. He was concerned with members who didn't own a mare or stallion having the right to vote in the election of the board. Jay Adcock offered his concern about the same, sharing that the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association does not allow any breeders who don't contribute to their organization an option to vote.

Discussion went back and forth about this concern, as well as the other types of membership.

A motion was made by Carrol Castille to change the membership rule to allow anyone who wishes to join the association with all the rights of a regular member without having to own breeding stock. Tom Early seconded this motion, which was presented to a roll call vote:

FOR:

Warren Harang III
Charlotte Clavier
Michele Rodriguez.
Tom Early
Carroll Castille

AGAINST:

Jay Adcock
Jake Delhomme
Jim Montgomery
Danny Guidry
Val Murrell
Michelle LaVoice
Brett Brinkman

Much discussion took place during the vote but no changes were made to the initial motion.

Danny Guidry the made a motion to allow regular membership available to persons owning 25% in a mare or 1/50% in a resident stallion. Tom Early seconded the motion which was put to a roll call vote after discussion:

FOR:

Warren Harang III
Jake Delhomme
Jay Adcock
Charlotte Clavier
Jim Montgomery
Daniel Guidry
Michele Rodriguez
Tom Early
Val Murrell
Michele LaVoice
Carroll Castille
Brett Brinkman

AGAINST:

Attorney Alex Bonin informed the board that they can't make this change as it was not presented this way with the 10 day notice. Discussion took place about the validity of the vote. Alex presented that everyone agreed on what we were to vote on today, but after futher thought those who voted for the change was against it today. He suggested that since the change will not go into affect till next year we put it off and vote at the next Board Meeting in December. All were in agreement.

Roger Heitzmann presented that Val also included in the beginning of the meeting that Honorary Lifetime members should be listed as regular members for life. The board agreed that this will be a change and that we should be able to vote on this at the December meeting. All members are in agreement.

Warren put forward the discussion on replacement of Board Members and who may be up this year. Roger informed the board on whose term ends this upcoming year.

Discussion then moved to the proposed rule changes in Part C of the By-Laws. Michelle LaVoice expressed concern that some wording was missing on and not clear on a specific rule and she thought it should be more clear that what it is.

Danny Guidry requested the floor to explain his thoughts on the rule change. He notified the board that he has strong feelings that the old Z rule should be returned. He believes it only helps the commercial breeder. He pointed out that we protect the little man and the resident stallion, but not the person who breeds to sell. He believes everyone should work to improve the quality and quantity of our mares. He put forth the question on how do we get new mares. Better race mares in the state retire here. Most of the mares we get are purchased in sales elsewhere, an older mare that is in foal to an out of state stallion. By forcing someone to breed to a lesser stallion causes the mare to depreciate immediately. If you allow them to breed out of state again the breed will improve. At some point the mare will breed to an in state stallion helping them as well. Danny said that participating in Louisiana is important to him as he is a resident of the state, but he doesn't believe that he should be forced to lose money because of it. Danny presented to the board that the breeders awards are not what he's after. He's more interested in the breeding of horses in Louisiana that he can sell. He suggested rules being adopted by other states and provinces, as they too are struggling to keep their numbers up. He also suggested rules that were not currently in use by others.

Discussion took place between the board members on Danny's suggestion as well as other perceived problems we face. This discussion continued on for some period of time.

Discussion about the future of racetracks in the state took place.

Discussion took place about the upcoming Governors Race and that the LTBA was not going to take a side in it. We would support the winner as Governor and begin talks with him and his staff.

The Board then returned to the discussion of the change of the By-Laws. After going back and forth as to what was in the new rules, and what is needed and wanted by members of the Board, no agreement could be reached at this meeting.

Alex informed the Board that when they are notified with the copies of the By-Laws to be discussed they need to address it and respond to both Roger and myself so that the changes can be made prior to the meeting.

Alex and Roger were instructed to have a completed version of the By-Laws to be presented at the next meeting, working with the changes from the Board.

Charlotte Clavier requested that we move to Executive Session. This was seconded by Val Murrell, which was voted on and passed unanimously.

Charlotte made a motion to re-enter regular session. This motion was seconded by Tom Early, which was voted on and passed unanimously.

The meeting was adjourned.

Warren Harang called the meeting to order and asked Roger Heitzmann to call the roll. A quorum was present and the meeting was ready to proceed with business.

Michele Rodriguez led us in prayer.

Tom Early made a motion to approve the minutes presented of the August 3, 2019 Board of Directors Meeting. Brett Brinkman seconded the motion, which was voted on and passed unanimously.

Members of the Board who were absent at the August 3rd meeting presented their conflict pages.

Jake Delhomme: Jake boards mares and foals at the farm of fellow board member Carroll Castille. He owns shares in the stallions Calibrocha and Redding Colliery who stand at the farm of fellow board member Jay Adcock. He also states that he has business dealings with both Carroll Castille and Charlotte Clavier.

Danny Guidry: He and his brother make up DocAtty Stables, LLC; he is a partner in Guidry and Guidry law firm representing many members of the industry. He is a Director of Home Bank. He owns interest in the stallions Gemologist and Court Vision.

Jim Montgomery: Jim is a shareholder of Equine Sales Company of Louisiana as well as a board member. He owns shares in stallions at Jay Adcock's Red River Farm as well as partnering with Jay in broodmares ownership.

Carroll Castille: Carroll is the operator of Ranch Outlet Feed and Supply doing business with members of the board as well as many members of the association. He also owns Whispering Oaks Farm, which boards, breeds and races thoroughbreds for members of the board as well as many members of the association.

Committee Reports:

By-Law: Val Murrell – Chairman

Val put forth the following which was agreed upon in conference and will be presented at the next scheduled Board of Directors Meeting to be voted on as By-Law and/or policy changes.

1. Charlotte made a motion that beginning with the change of calendar year the LTBA will no longer be offering a membership as an associate. The regular membership will be offered to anyone who has interest in thoroughbred breeding and racing with the fee of $75. All regular members will have all rights of membership including the right to vote in the Annual Board of Directors Election. This motion was seconded by Carroll Castille, which was agreed to by all to be voted on at the next Board of Directors Meeting with ten day notice.

2. Michele Rodriguez made a motion that beginning with the foal crop of 2019 a mare that foals in Louisiana has two options to depart the Louisiana Program. If said foal is by a Louisiana standing Stallion, the mare if bred, must be bred to a Louisiana Stallion and can depart Louisiana after August 1st of that year with that foal at her side being considered a foal eligible for accreditation and full breeders awards. If the foal is by a stallion standing outside Louisiana the mare if bred, must be bred to a Louisiana Stallion and can depart the program after August 1st for the foal at her side but that foal will be eligible for 50% of the standard rate of Breeders Awards. If the mare of that foal stays until December 31st of that year the foal will be eligible for 100% of the standard rate. If the mare is sold at public auction, that would constitute a full stay.
3. Michele Rodriguez made a motion that beginning with the 2020 breeding season, if a mare foals in Louisiana, a foal by a stallion that covered the mare out of the state of Louisiana, and the owner wishes to sell that said mare before the end of that breeding season, he may do so, but it will be incumbent on the person selling the mare to use a form provided by the LTBA that states in writing that if the mare is bred back to a second out of state stallion, that foal will be ineligible for accreditation. This motion was seconded by Tom Early, which was voted on and passed unanimously.
4. Michele Rodriguez made a motion that beginning with the 2019 race meet to be held at Delta Downs, Breeders awards will be awarded as follows:
 - a. Accredited Louisiana bred foals that are by a stallion standing in Louisiana at time of cover will be awarded an award of 20% of the amount earned with a race cap of $200,000.
 - b. Accredited Louisiana bred foals that are by a stallion that stood outside the State of Louisiana at the time of cover will be awarded a Breeders award of 18% of the amount earned with a race cap of $200,000.

This motion was seconded by Charlotte Clavier, which was voted on and passed unanimously.

The previous sections 1-3 was voted on and passed with the knowledge that they will not become law and/or rule until it is placed on the agenda, a ten day notice is given and voted on and passed by a 2/3 vote of the board of Directors. Item #4 is considered passed and will take effect at the appointed time.

Finance & Audit: Tom Early – Chairman

Tom had no report for this meeting. Therese Arroyo informed the board of the completion of the audit. She also let them know that the September 30th financials would be submitted as quickly as possible. She also informed the board that with Louisiana Downs not being able to simulcast the Preakness cost the association approximately $25,000 which is used for Louisiana Champions Day. We will have to make that money up somewhere.

Government Affairs: Jake Delhomme – Chairman

Charlotte put forth the idea of making sure that we invite as many Government Officials as possible to all LTBA events. She suggested that Loretta Romero contact them and serve as their host for the day.

Grievance Committee: Michele LaVoice – Chairperson

Michelle LaVavoice brought back the grievance presented to the board at the August meeting. The board heard the grievance but could not come to any decision. Michelle and the committee went over the testimony and evidence presented and came back to the board with another finding. Michelle made a motion that in order to make Ms. Stewart's foal an accredited Louisiana bred she must pay a fine of $1000 and complete the paperwork and fees needed. Michele Rodriguez seconded the motion, which was voted on and passed unanimously.
