BREEDING SHED

Keeping the Membership informed, LTBA President Tom Early

Most of us go through life loving our parents, spouses, siblings and children. Every once in a while someone comes into our lives that easily enters our private “ring of love”. One of those persons came into my life in February of 2004.

I was looking for a replacement for Rae Woods, who had started working for the Louisiana Thoroughbred Breeders Association at the same time I did in 1974 and had announced she wanted to retire before the Evangeline meet began. I had interviewed several candidates when one day Gerard Melancon came into the LTBA office and proclaimed “Hey boss, I hear you’re looking for someone to take Miss Rae’s place at Evangeline, well stop looking, I have the perfect person for you”.

And that is how one of the loveliest persons I have ever met joined my “circle of love”.

As most of you are aware, Billie Jo Courville died on February second after nearly nine years of fighting cancer. The fight, while not always pleasant, was done as Billie did everything in life, with class, dignity and always a smile on her face. Never a complaint and always that SMILE. It is that SMILE that I will miss the most.

25 YEARS OF CHAMPIONS!

There was something for everyone at the 25th renewal of Louisiana Champions Day at Fair Grounds. Three long shots, one odds-on favorite and four mid-range mutuels resulted in a balance of pay-offs. For the first time in memory there was almost a completely equal distribution of victories amongst owners, trainers and jockeys. Each of the eight thoroughbred stakes was won by a different trainer and only Robby Albardo had two stakes wins among the jockey colony. Owner/breeder Ronald Webb accounted for two trophies. If there was anything out of sync it was the weather. Two weeks before Christmas and it was warm, balmy t-shirt weather for the fans.

Jockey agent Rick Mocklin began the event with the singing of the National Anthem accompanied by a military honor guard that presented the United States flag and colors. Roger Heitzmann, secretary/treasurer of the Louisiana Thoroughbred Breeders Association, explained the recent tradition of involving members of the Army, Navy, Air Force and Marines to the Louisiana Champions Day program. "It's to honor our military and give them an experience they could not otherwise have at the races," Heitzmann said.

"After the colors presentation they go to the paddock and winner's circle for each race. They get to see the horses up close."

PACIFIC PINK

PRIVATE VOW-TRULY ROMANTIC

Breeder: Brandon Adcock

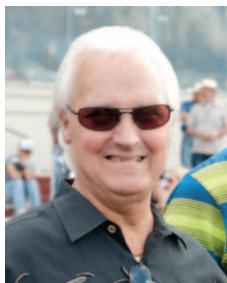

Owner: Keith Plaisance

Trainer: Eddie Johnston

Jockey: Robby Albarado

You won't get many detractors or people to argue against Keith Plaisance's Pacific Pink being the best filly in the state of Louisiana. In the $100,000 Louisiana Champions Day Ladies showed a dimension of heart that explains why she has never been off the board in ten starts. Ridden by Robby Albarado, Pacific Pink was between horses early on the first turn and then reserved off the pace. Going into and around the far turn, she was once again crowded in a tight knit bunch. Things got worse in the stretch when she was bumped twice before punching herself through and emerged to win by three-quarters of a length.

"To me she is the best in the state right now in her division," trainer Eddie Johnston said. "I thought she might get late on me because she hadn't run in three months but she got up in time."

"She is an easy filly to train. She is not hard on herself and that's the mark of a smart horse," Johnston continued to explain his filly's performance off a long layoff. "She will gallop a mile and a half or breeze a half mile and do it all easy."

Despite carrying top weight, the consistent record of Pacific Pink was like found money to the bettors. The $3.00 win mutuel was the shortest price of all winners on Louisiana Champions Day. The final time for the 1-1/16th mile was 1:46.15 with Southern Legacy Thoroughbreds Private Promise holding on for second placing.

"She has brought me into the winner's circle a high percentage of the time," said owner Keith Plaisance of his filly that has four large margin wins at both sprint and middle distances. "No telling what she is going to be like on the turf."

Now a four time stakes winner, Pacific Pink is a 4-year-old daughter of Private Vow—Truly Romantic, by Robyn Dancer and bred by Brandon Adcock.

HOT ZAPPER

GHOST ZAPPER-HOT TALENT

Breeder: Ronald Webb

Owner: Ronald Webb

Trainer: Andrew Leggio

Jockey: Jose Riquelme

If you stayed in your seat for the final 200 yards of the $100,000 Louisiana Champions Day Turf you may want to make a doctor's appointment and have your pulse checked. Ronald Webb's home-bred Hot Zapper captured a three horse photo with a powerful late surge under jockey Jose Riquelme.

Andy Leggio

Ronald Webb

If the late excitement did not grab your attention, there was early drama. Benwill unseated his rider going by the grandstand for the first time and the rider (Marcelino Pedroza) remained down for some time. An outrider and member of the ambulance crew scampered out onto the track and managed to carry the fallen rider to safety as the field went into the far turn.

Last to load, Hot Zapper navigated the first turn three wide from his outside post then secured a close tracking position down the backside. The son of Ghostzapper—Hot Talent, by Alphabet Soup hesitated when confronted with the loose horse in upper stretch then, under strong urging from Riquelme, found room on the rail and continued his steady attack. Hot Zapper’s $44.00 upset was his third straight photo finish win under Riquelme. “We get along fine,” Riquelme said. “I was just taking my time with him and watching what happened with the loose horse.”

Hot Zapper was cross entered in the Louisiana Champions Day Classic by trainer Andrew Leggio. “He broke his maiden on the dirt here at Fair Grounds by a big margin so we had an idea that he had some talent,” Leggio said. “We tried him on the turf at Louisiana Downs and he ran very well. We didn’t want to mess with String King but this race fit him to a T. It was the right spot.”

Charlie Smith’s popular String King became Louisiana’s latest millionaire by finishing second. “That was probably the most bitter-sweet moment I’ve had in racing,” Smith said. “To become a million dollar career winner with no fan fare is something that will take a long time to get over.”

Back in mid-June, Floyd Pitzer’s Aunt Nellie broke her maiden as a first-time-starter on the rail at Evangeline Downs. In her fourth career start, the 2-year-old bay filly used the familiar rail position again to win the $100,000 Louisiana Champions Day Lassie.

Under Roberto Morales, Aunt Nellie broke from the rail but found herself behind the field and chasing a fast pace up front. Gaining momentum on the turn, Aunt Nellie was swung six wide out of the turn. Feeling the ride handed urging of Morales, she closed with a sustained rush and smothered the leaders inside the sixteenth pole. Leaving nothing to doubt, the final margin of victory was 3-1/4 lengths.

Conquest Tiz One finished second behind the final time of 1:12.36 for six furlongs.

“She is one of those one run kind of horses,” trainer/owner Pitzer said. “Around the barn she is really laid back, almost lazy.”

Aunt Nellie (a bay daughter of Musket Man—Vanilla Whirl, by Island Whirl) was bred by Floyd and Renee Pitzer, who are from Folsom, Louisiana. Aunt Nellie’s career record is a spotless 4: 2-1-1. “I named her after my great-aunt Nellie,” Renee explained. “So today is kind of a legacy thing. My aunt Nellie was a real outgoing, party type person. I just knew that she was looking down on us today.”

Coming off a romping maiden win on November 22, Jockamo’s Song showed it was no fluke by wearing down millionaire Heitai in the final furlong and holding off the late charge of defending champion Too Dim in the final sixteenth.

Jockamo’s Song was bred in Folsom, Louisiana by Debbie and David Allen. “The mare was a rescue horse that my son saw and brought to the farm,” Debbie explained. “Her baby was a chestnut when he was born but kept changing colors.

I looked out in the pasture one morning and decided to call him Jockamo after the Mardi Gras Indians song. He had so many colors.”

Trained by Mike Stidham, the gray son of Half Ours—Miss Clairnette, by Trophy Hunter came home in rapid final time of 1:10.78 for six furlongs and gave jockey Mitchell Murrill his first victory in a stakes.

Melissa Cantacuzene's The Pickett Factor was a commanding winner of the $150,000 Louisiana Champions Day Classic, delivering a dominant performance that resulted in the largest (5-1/4 lengths) win margin of Louisiana Champions Day.

For track announcer John Dooley, the Classic was an easy race to call. The Pickett Factor broke sharp away from the gate under Luis Quinonez and tracked long shot leader Know You Now around the first turn. Edging up closer down the backside, The Pickett Factor came up to the leader's flank on the far turn. By mid-stretch the gelded son of Gold Tribute—

Dynaspice, by Dynaformer had dug in his heels and was pulling away. "When the other horses started coming to him he started to pick it up," Quinonez explained. "Then when he switched leads he just took off and went on about his business."

Adios amigos. Any questions about stamina were answered. The Pickett Factor's final time for the 1-1/8 mile was 1:51.33. Ridden by Hall of Fame jockey Edgar Prado, Tigertail Ranch's Mobile Bay was second.

From the hunt country of Virginia, owner Melissa Cantacuzene offered her assessment of her horse's personality and performance, "He's a wonderfully nice horse. He's cool and sensible but most important of all—fast."

Ralph Irwin

Trainer Ralph Irwin indicated that The Pickett Factor (bred by E. O. Pickett) would be given a well deserved break and has been penciled in for the Louisiana Premier Night Championship at Delta Downs.

Despite some turbulence at the start of his journey, Ronald Webb's home-bred Sea Vow returned form and stability to the parade of long shots by winning the $100,000 Louisiana Champions Day Juvenile.

At odds of 5-1 in the field of 12, Sea Vow was bumped hard leaving the gate but protected his territory and recovered to go up and dispute the blistering pace. The navigation by jockey Alexander Castillo was text book: let the son of Private Vow—Victory At Sea, Final time for the six furlongs was 1:11.79. Double Dam Farm's Mageez was second best.

"I was worried when I saw we were up there with those fast fractions," admitted winning trainer Joseph Foster. "He is stout when he needs to be. He doesn't fold under pressure. He is a laid back individual and keeps growing so we think he has a promising future."

Add versatility to his resume of consistency and speed. Sea Vow has now won three out of five career races at three different tracks in the state of Louisiana.

Better Late than Never

Ronald Webb got into horse racing in 1970, but his biggest success came last year

By Jane Nicholes

When lightning finally struck for Ronald Webb, it struck twice.

Webb owns and bred not one 2015 Louisiana Champions Day winner, but two. Hot Zapper won the Turf and Sea Vow took the Juvenile. Webb says they are “the only two good ones I ever had.”

Webb, 68, of Coushatta, has bred and raced horses starting in 1970 with a Quarter Horse that, by his own description, “flopped.” More recently, the retired government agriculture employee has downsized, selling his broodmares and retaining seven horses, of which four are racing.

He was amazed by his success on Champions Day at the Fair Grounds. “I don’t believe it, still,” he said. “I don’t know how we pulled it off. The whole deal was luck.”

Luck may have played a part, but so did some good breeding and buying decisions.

In 2010, Webb went to the Keeneland November sale with some money from an oil lease. He bought a few mares. One, Hot Talent, is a daughter of Breeders Cup Classic winner Alphabet Soup.

Hot Talent was purchased in foal to Horse of the Year and Breeders Cup Classic winner Ghostzapper. The resulting foal was Hot Zapper.

Now a 5-year-old gelding, Hot Zapper showed promise as a 3-year-old. He was laid off from March 2014 to July 2015, due to injury, then came back over the summer at Louisiana Downs. Trained by Andrew Leggio, the gelding was switched to the turf. Since breaking his maiden at a mile and 70 yards, Hot Zapper has raced distances from a mile to a mile and a 1/16th.

At Louisiana Downs, he ran fourth in an optional claimer, fourth in the Louisiana Cup Turf Classic and fifth in an allowance race. Then Zapper got hot. Two allowance wins in September and November brought him to the Champions Day Turf where he upset String King.

“I wanted to give him the opportunity to do all he could do,” Webb said. “We won. It was about a half a nose. It wasn’t very much, but he did win.”

Grade 3 company proved to be too tough for Zapper. The gelding finished eighth Jan. 16 in the Colonel E.R. Bradley Handicap behind Chocolate Ride.

Sea Vow, the newly turned 3-year-old gelding trained by Joey Foster, is already a multiple stakes winner. He’s a son of Private Vow, winner of the G2 Kentucky Jockey Club Stakes, and stakes-winning mare Victory at Sea. Webb said he purchased the mare at a Lafayette sale.

Sea Vow began his career with a fourth at Louisiana Downs, his worst finish to date. “He won a maiden special weight at Louisiana Downs,” Webb said. “We brought him down to Delta. He ran second. The jockey said the lights bothered him or he would have probably run first.”

He won the Louisiana Legacy at Delta in November, the Champions Day Juvenile at Fair Grounds in December, and the 7-furlong $75,000 Big Drama Stakes at Delta Jan. 9, his first start around two turns and against open company.

Webb also has a couple of claimers in training, an unstarted 3-year-old filly who was deemed too big to race at 2 and another filly on layoff after two seconds at Louisiana Downs.

And he has another potentially outstanding home-bred growing up. The filly is a yearling half-sister to Hot Zapper by Mass Media, a Grade 1 winner standing at Red River Farms in Coushatta.

Webb’s breeding philosophy is pretty simple. “Basically, I want a mare that’s a stakes winner, that’s shown that she can run. And then I try to breed to as good a horse as I can.”

Webb routinely describes himself as “old,” “feeble,” “poor” and done with breeding. He complains that he’ll be 70 when Hot Zapper’s baby sister is running. But he’s not quite ready to say never again.

“I would buy a mare if the right one came along, but I haven’t found her,” Webb said. “I’d want one that

SABERCAT BREEDING ANALYSIS

BY ALAN PORTER

Sabercat is the first winner of the $1,000,000 Delta Jackpot (gr. III) to retire to stud in Louisiana. A multiple stakes winner at two, and a grade one performer at three, Sabercat took the Delta Downs Jackpot by four lengths, and the Garden State Stakes by six lengths. On the Experimental Free Handicap he was rated equal with Champion Sprinter Trinniberg and grade one winner Drill, and above future Kentucky Derby (gr. I) and Preakness Stakes (gr. I) winning champion I'll Have Another, and grade one winners Alpha, Take Charge Indy and Summer Front.

Sabercat is by Bluegrass Cat, a classic performing son of Storm Cat, out of a sister to the dam of red-hot sire, Super Saver. Sabercat's dam, Miner's Blessing, is a multiple stakes producing daughter of Forty Niner, and like Bluegrass Cat and Super Saver, traces to the great tap-root mare La Troienne, also ancestress of Buckpasser, Woodman, Private Account, More Than Ready, Mineshaft, Flatter and Congrats.

Sabercat is out of a mare by Forty Niner, from the Mr. Prospector line, and since stallions frequently cross well with mares from their own broodmare sire line, breeding Sabercat back over Mr. Prospector should work well. Out of mares from this line Bluegrass Cat has a grade one winner out of a mare by Crafty Prospector, and a graded winner out of a mare by Lion Cavern (a brother to Gone West, sire of such as Speightstown, Grand Slam, Elusive Quality – the broodmare sire of a Bluegrass Cat stakes winner – and Mr. Greeley), as well as stakes winners out of mares by Not For Love (a three-quarters brother to Woodman), Street Cry (sire of Street Sense) and Miswaki (sire of Black Tie Affair). Bluegrass Cat also has stakes winners out of mares by Distorted Humor and Trippi, from Sabercat's own Forty Niner branch, so doubling that strain is also potentially positive. Bluegrass Cat has done well with mares by Unbridled and Unbridled's Song, from the Fappiano branch, and Fappiano might also do well here through Cyptoclearance (sire of Victory Gallop; grandsire of Candy Ride).

There is a Bluegrass Cat grade two winner out of a mare by Devil's Bag and a stakes winner out of a mare by that horse's brother, Saint Ballado. They are both from the Halo line, and this would also work particularly well if introduced through More Than Ready. Halo is a Hail to Reason line stallion, and from the Roberto branch of that line there is a Bluegrass Cat stakes winner out of a mare by Red Ransom, suggesting also considering mares descending from such as Dynaformer, Kris S. and Silver Hawk. From the Stop the Music branch of Hail to Reason, there is a stakes winner out of a mare by American Chance (by Cure the Blues).

Out of mares from his own Northern Dancer line, Bluegrass Cat has a graded winning and grade one placed performer from a daughter of Deputy Minister, and a stakes winner out of a mare by that horse's son, Silver Deputy, suggesting introducing this strain through Awesome Again, Touch Gold, Dehere, Graeme Hall and Salt Lake. There is a graded stakes winner by Bluegrass Cat from a daughter of Stagecraft, who is by Sadler's Wells, a strain that can be found through El Prado (sire of Medaglia d'Oro, Kitten's Joy and Artie Schiller) and through Horse Chestnut. In addition Bluegrass Cat has stakes winners out of mares by the Northern Dancer line horses Theatrical (by Nureyev, sire of Spinning World, Fasliyev, Stravinsky and Atticus) and Pine Bluff (by Danzig, also sire of such as Exchange Rate, Belong to Me, War Front, War Chant, Hard Spun, Lost Soldier and Dayjur).

Sabercat might also cross well with mares descending from A.P. Indy, particularly via Pulpit (sire of Tapit, Sky Mesa and Stroll), Malibu Moon, Mineshaft, Flatter and Congrats.

2015 LOUISIANA FUTURITIES

December 31, 2015 was the fifty-third running of the Louisiana Futurity, the oldest stakes race for accredited Louisiana bred. The race was first run in 1963 when it was opened to any accredited Louisiana bred that was registered with the Louisiana Thoroughbred Breeders Association (LTBA). The LTBA had been incorporated only six months earlier that year.

The first two runnings were opened to both sexes. In 1965 nominations and eligibility payments were taken for the first time, and the race was run in separate divisions for colts or fillies. The race was often split in many of the early runnings because it cost only $100 to enter and $250 to start. The race has not been split into more than one division for each sex since 1997. There were actually eight runnings of the Louisiana Futurity in 1994, as the scheduled 1993 races were delayed until January of 1994 following the fire at the Fair Grounds.

In the early years of the LTBA, there were only two races where an accredited Louisiana Bred two-year-old could run for a big purse: the Louisiana Futurity at the Fair Grounds and the Southwest Louisiana Futurity (twice renamed; first as the Cajun Futurity, then as the current D.S. "Shine" Young Futurity). The first Louisiana Futurity was won by Mr. Burke who ran for a gross purse of $12,180. The largest purse in the Louisiana Futurity was the 2007 filly division which was a healthy $112,935. Both divisions of the 2015 Louisiana Futurity carried a purse of $95,770. .

Progeny of the sire Half Ours dominated the 2015 Louisiana Futurities winning the Filly division as well as the Colt and Gelding division. For pedigree pundits, both winners are in-bred to Mr. Prospector with Half Ours being a Mr. Prospector line and both broodmare sires being Mr. Prospector lines.

The filly division was won by Smitty's Cougar, who was making her fifth start for owner/breeder Roger Smith. She had previously broken her maiden at Delta Downs in her second start while completely dominating the field to win by an eye popping 13 ½ lengths going five furlongs. Opening day at the Fair Grounds found her repeating her winning increasing 9 3/4 lengths to take home the $57,462 winner's share while getting the six furlongs in 1:12:20.

Smitty's Cougar is the fourth winner and first stakes winner from her dam, Smitty's Sunshine, a stakes winner of more than half a million dollars herself. Trained by Ron Faucheux, Smitty's Cougar earned $118,312 for the year with surely more to come in 2016 and the venture on the turf where her dam had seven of her nine wins.

Half Cajun used the same tactics as the filly winner by setting the pace and widening in the stretch to win by a comfortable 4 1/2 lengths. Bred in Louisiana by his owner, Stacey Moak, Half Cajun was making just his second start after breaking his maiden at first asking at Louisiana Downs in September. With his two wins from two starts, the James "Sweet" Hodges trainee's earnings for the year stand at $72,462. Half Cajun is the second 2015 stakes winner from his dam. His half brother, Cajun Spirit, captured the 2015 edition of the A.L. "Red" Erwin Stake at Louisiana Downs this summer.

Half Cajun is the fourth foal and second stakes winner produced by the Smart Strike dam, Diamondinthestream. The mare has a Tiz Wonderful two-year-old and is currently in foal to Bind.

A Lot of Good Years

Trainer Merrill Scherer has been working the back side of race tracks for over half a century.

Gary McMillen

On a cold morning outside of the tack room in Barn 4 at Fair Grounds, Merrill Scherer is throwing verbal jabs at his assistant trainer. “I used to soar with eagles before I hooked up with you,” Scherer says, “Now I’m just sore.”

“I made you what you are today,” the assistant trainer shoots back. “Broke.”

With Scherer, it’s all in fun. Jokes, sarcasm and humorous anecdotes flow out of him like a one man performance of Saturday Night Live. Given his background, Scherer’s light hearted attitude is a testament to survival and resiliency.

Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn never had it so good. Born and raised in the Irish Channel neighborhood of New Orleans, Scherer started from ground zero. The street corner of 7th and Constance was not an environment that cultivated achievement. Money was scarce. Food was a precious commodity. It was a life uncomplicated with an over abundance of possessions.

“There wasn’t a lot to do,” Scherer recalls. “The old ladies sat outside on the stoop and the kids played kick the can in the street. People didn’t lock their doors back in those days.” Scherer’s father worked at Higgins Ship Yards, making submarines and landing craft for the war effort.

Short of graduating from high school, Scherer left home at the age of sixteen and traveled to Cleveland, Ohio. Just for kicks. He stayed with a friend, a jockey who was riding at Thistledown Race Course. Within a few days, Scherer was on the wrong end of a shovel and rake, working in a stable, mucking stalls on the backstretch of Thistledown Race Course. “I figured I was going to stay a week,” Scherer remembers of the lack of planning. "I had a year left of high school but I never went back. I tried night school but that was no good so I never graduated. From that point on it was just jumping around from track to track."

In the mid 50's, Scherer's suitcase moved on a conveyor belt back and forth between the race tracks in Ohio and the Fair Grounds in Louisiana. The tracks in New England and Detroit Race Course were occasional detours. He harbored no intention of becoming a trainer. "I just liked life on the backside," he reflects. "Walking, rubbing and grooming horses with all those gyps and characters with funny nicknames. Imagine knowing guys with names like Shoe Pick, Rabbit and Thumb Latch."

Getting rich was not the goal. "It

Scherer recalls. "When you woke up in the morning you looked like Little Black Sambo and the soot was all in your clothes." Sub zero temperatures at a track in Massachusetts pushed Scherer to take drastic measures. "Sometimes you got to get creative," Scherer remembers. "I turned the hot water on in the shower and slept on a wooden bench."

According to Scherer, his intentions were never to become a trainer. It just happened. In the early sixties he was at rock bottom when a man turned a horse named Man Dan the Second over to his care. "He gave me $300 and told me when the money runs out to give the horse away," he says. Scherer shipped the horse to River Downs where he had been promised a stall.

Scherer visited a used car lot on Canal Street. "It was a Chevy and I made two blocks before the front wheel fell off," Scherer recalls, shaking his head. "They replaced it with a Plymouth Fury that had a bunch of metal push buttons on the dashboard. You pushed one in and all the other buttons popped out like a toaster."

Scherer's car troubles were a minor pimple compared to the discomfort of his backstretch accommodations at Fair Grounds in the early '60's. He was training two horses at the time. "It was just me," he says. "I was stabled in a little annex of the Bradley Barn at the head of the stretch. The roof leaked and I had to shut the doors when it rained. I rubbed two and walked two. The exercise riders wanted $2 was hard work. We started at four in the morning and finished up at eleven. Every other day I got paid $5 for walking eight or nine horses and cleaning the pony stalls. At the Fair Grounds they had a breakfast called the Round Robin that cost 39 cents. You got bacon and eggs, coffee and toast and glass of orange juice. After that I would walk over to the grandstand and find somebody to put up a dollar-a-piece to play the Daily Double. I was usually back to the barn by the third race."

Jokes, sarcasm and humorous anecdotes flow from Merrill Scherer like a one man performance of Saturday Night Live.

For Scherer, the early days as a stable hand were punctuated with more "downs" than "ups." Roach Motel was a more likely living quarters than the Hampton Suites. Staying warm in the winter months became his daily occupation. "At Churchill Downs they had heaters in the rooms fed by charcoal,"

After five days he was kicked out so he and the horse moved over to Thistle Downs. "In those days you had to put up the jockey fee right in the paddock or they scratched you," Scherer remembers. "A guy walked around collecting $17. That left me with $8 left in my pocket and I bet $2 across the board." Man Dan the Second paid $50 and change to win and Scherer replaced his tuna sandwich with a steak dinner.

Even something as simple as getting married became a series of misfortunes. Scherer was in Cleveland, Ohio when he began to drive south in order to get married. Less than an hour out of the city, the car engine blew up. "I had two other guys with me so I sold the piece of junk for enough money for bus tickets to New Orleans," Scherer recounts of the drama. In need of transportation to meet his bride,

Since the race track was lower than the neighborhood streets, any heavy downpour resulted in the surface resembling the Atchafalaya Swamp. "It was muddy as Hell and there were holes all over the place," Scherer remembers. "They had a pack of mules they used to pull the floats around the track with men standing on the floats to squeeze the water off."

Not all the barns had electricity. With the mutual agreement of trainers, 100 foot extension drop cords snaked across the rafters from one barn to another so that the workers could see at night or before dawn. Fair Grounds management supplied fire wood that was used to heat water in 55 gallon drums. "Some of those big barns had 20 horses a side so it was a long hike to the water spigot at the end of the barn,"

Scherer remembers of the protocol. “We had to heat our own water so every time you took a bucket out of the drum you had to walk back and replace it or you would get an ass whipping from the other grooms.”

Scherer’s penchant for playing tricks developed early. He would save the manure droppings from his horses and wait a few days before secretly shoveling a hefty deposit into the barn’s designated pony stall. A common bewildered response to the mess from a groom would be, “In all my life I have never seen a pony shit as much as this animal.”

For a historical perspective of horse racing at the Fair Grounds, few are more qualified than Scherer. He can recall the barn locations of the King Ranch and Dixiana Stable operations. He competed against trainers like Sam Parise, Jack Van Berg, Henry Forrest, Tennessee Wright, Sylvester Veitch and Harold “Buddy” Raines.

Scherer was observant to the different styles and training methods. “I got a real kick out of watching the big outfits train their horses,” Scherer says. “The exercise riders for Sylvester Veitch came off the track and walked their own horses. Everybody did things in groups. They waited for each other and walked the horses in sets of three after they came off the track. You don’t see that anymore.”

Because of their personalities and horsemanship, there were two trainers that most captured Scherer’s respect. He can still recite the home address of his friend Clifford Scott. “Scotty had a high rise condo in Chicago with a panorama view of the city and the lakefront,” Scherer says. “At the track he carried a 24 carat gold stopwatch to clock his horses.” Scherer shared Barn 7 with Cuban trainer Angel Barrera for a few seasons. “Angel used to hose the legs of everybody’s horses when they walked by,” Scherer remembers.

“He wasn’t in a hurry about anything. He could stand there for hours and hose the legs of horses.”

Belfort Street was the main artery of entertainment on the Fair Grounds backstretch. There were drainage ditches on both sides of the street. Cheap hotels, one room apartments and rooming board houses had shared bathrooms. Every restaurant had a resident bookie joint. Barrooms named Red Stokes, The Half Mile Post, Tiny’s and the Belfort Inn. Daily Racing Forms were on sale for 50 cents. A plate of red beans and rice cost 65 cents.

Safety and health inspections were never an issue on the street that refused to recognize regulations. “I hung out at the Belfort Inn,” Scherer says. “One night after the last race a guy came running in the joint and was hollering that they had just robbed everybody down the street. He said they told all the customers to lay down on the floor. He said that he looked down at the dirty floor and told the robbers they would have to shoot him first.”

Scherer was close friends with the legendary sports character Allen “Black Cat” Lacombe, who was the publicist for the Fair Grounds. Lacombe had a radio talk show where he picked the horses and touted his listeners. Scherer had just purchased a Louisiana-bred named Sad News Buford and he told Lacombe that the horse was going to run a big race. Lacombe touted Sad News Buford on his talk show and the horse won, paying $63. “Black Cat got all drunk up with us the next night and admitted that he didn’t bet the horse,” Scherer says. “He was a smart guy with a big heart but bad luck stuck to him like gravy on rice.”

It was more a publicity stunt than strategy but one year Lacombe ran for Governor of Louisiana. He had parties and threw crawfish boils on the backstretch. According to Scherer, one of the other candidates paid Lacombe $200 not to show up for forums or speaking engagements so as not to embarrass the process.

It would be a mistake to assume that Scherer’s colorful past translated to a cavalier approach to his profession. As of January 16, 2016, Scherer has saddled 1,364 winners and is a multiple graded stakes winning trainer. He won the 2006 Grade 3 Shakertown Stakes with Atticus Kristy and the 2002 Grade 3 Louisville Stakes with Classic Par. After his victory in 2000 Churchill Downs Distaff Turf Mile (gr.III) on Derby Day, Scherer toasted champagne with President Bush and Kentucky Governor Will Farish. “We might have talked for three minutes but the next day I told Neil Howard that ‘Will’ and I were on a first name basis,” Scherer says with a sly grin.

In 1993 one of Scherer’s favorite horses Little Bro Lantis (a $12,500 claim) went on to win the Grade 3 Stars and Stripes Handicap.

“I had a lot of good years,” Scherer explains. “It’s an up and down kind of sport. Maybe I got a reputation for playing tricks on people but I just like to mess with them and poke fun once in awhile. I wouldn’t think about hurting anybody. This is a hard enough game back here as it is.”

The Truth about “Kill Pen” Rescues

As a non-profit association, LHRA has to deal with challenges that many people don't realize exist in the animal rescue world. With the slow economy, our benefactors are less likely to contribute funds to our cause, a fact which has shifted our fundraising efforts into new areas. Unfortunately, other non-profit organizations have done the same thing – bringing them into a direct competition with our efforts to feed our animals. Not all of these organizations are legitimate. We have evidence of other so-called animal rescue groups claiming to raise money for horses in our (LHRA) care, but keeping all of the money. We have documented proof of this, but we choose to stay on a path that allows us to take the high road while educating our supporters about such individuals.

Recently we have been receiving a large number of calls and emails pertaining to “kill pen horse rescues”. The name “kill pen rescue” is designed to play on the compassion in the hearts of horse lovers. If you truly care about the welfare of these animals you certainly don't want them to end up at a location called a “kill pen”, right?

We at LHRA often get emails or calls that a certain horse has a “shipping date” unless a person is willing to pay its “bail”. What actually is happening is that a sale barn is offering the horse at auction and is now attempting to rip off an unsuspecting person at the expense of a defenseless horse.

These horses do not have a fixed “shipping date” to a Mexican or Canadian slaughter facility, nor have they been convicted of any crime that caused them to need bail money. Sadly, this type of tactic uses imaginary deadlines to cause people to make an emotional response that puts money in the pockets of the seller and, in a roundabout way, takes money out of ours.

The bottom line here is that these types of operations are not rescues. We are consistent with our recommendation to people who contact LHRA in a panic asking our advice about bailing out a horse before a certain deadline – just say no.

If everyone would simply quit giving these people money they would go away. If you see or hear of any such operation please contact them, get all of their information, and then call their local law enforcement agency and ask them to go take a look. Get the name of the officer you speak to and ask for a follow-up call, and document everything they tell you while making sure they know you are writing it all down. Constant scrutiny is needed to keep these con artists in check.

These types of people give the racing and breeding industry, and the State of Louisiana, a collective black eye. As the LHRA board president, I am honored to have the very best board members anyone could ask for. They all know that these so-called “kill-pen rescues” are more than our competition; they are our enemy. Please join LHRA's fight to shine a light on them. Contribute to an organization that you have researched, become a member, get involved, and run for office if you can, but by all means do something.

LHRA continues to give back 100% of the money we take in to buy feed and medicine for our horses. We are an all volunteer association and we have some of the greatest people in the industry supporting us. We are well-respected by our peers and we always reach out to help or advise the state agencies that call upon us.

We are thankful for the help we receive from the LTBA, the HBPA, the Louisiana State Racing Commission and the LSU School of Veterinary Medicine and as always we strive to educate and bring continuity to our industry.

You can learn more about our mission at our website, www.louisianahorserescue.com, and you can find us on facebook at www.facebook.com/lhra1, along with about 17,000 of our supporters there.

Travis County, Texas against Glen Hegar in his official capacity as Comptroller of Public Accounts for the State of Texas. At question is the constitutionality of a Legislative Budget Board (LBB) appropriations rider, Rider 7, that is currently limiting funding of the Texas Racing Commission (TRC) and poses an imminent and existential threat to the continued existence of the THP and the Texas horse racing industry.

Rider 7 purports to give the LBB unlimited discretion to withhold all funds appropriated for the Texas Racing Commission's central administration and other support services. Without the ability to spend these funds, the TRC cannot perform any of its basic administrative or regulatory functions and, as a consequence, the Texas horse racing industry cannot operate.

Since Rider 7 became effective, the LBB has made clear that it will not permit the TRC to spend its essential funds until the agency repeals its rules allowing a form of pari-mutuel wagering called Historical Racing. On December 15, 2015, the TRC rejected a proposal to repeal the Historical Racing Rules.

Although the LBB has authorized the TRC to use funds appropriated for other purposes to keep the agency open temporarily, access to those funds will expire on February 29, 2016, and the LBB has indicated that it will not approve any further stopgap measures to keep the TRC operating beyond that date. In addition, defendant Hegar has indicated that he is unable to issue any warrants, electronic fund transfers, or debits to pay for the TRC's central administration and other support services without the LBB's approval. Accordingly, absent relief from the District Court of Travis County, the TRC will cease all operations on March 1, 2016, which will result in an immediate shut down of the entire Texas horse racing industry.

Such a shutdown could cause irreparable harm to the industry and its participants. In its legal action, the THP is requesting a judgment from the District Court of Travis County declaring Rider 7 unconstitutional. In addition, the THP is requesting a temporary and permanent injunction that prohibits Mr. Hegar from refusing to pay for the TRC's central administration and other support services because of the LBB's failure to approve the expenditure of those appropriated funds pursuant to its purported authority under Rider 7.

“We believe the actions of the Legislative Budget Board are unconstitutional, and we believe we have no choice other than legal action to protect the Texas horse racing industry and the livelihoods of thousands of Texans horsemen and other Texas business owners and employees who depend on the continued existence of our industry.”

The THP's legal action contends that: 1. Rider 7 constitutes an improper delegation of legal power under Article III, Section 1 of the Texas Constitution. 2. Rider 7 violates the Separation of Powers Clause of the Texas Constitution, Article II, Section 1. 3. Rider 7 violates the Texas Horsemen's Partnership's Members' due process rights under the Texas and United States Constitutions. A copy of the legal action filed by Gardere Wynne Sewell, LLP on behalf of the THP is available upon request.

The Texas Horsemen's Partnership (THP) is the officially recognized representative of licensed owners and trainers of racehorses of all racing breeds by the State of Texas. The organization is a partnership between the Texas Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association (THBPA), which represents owners and trainers of Quarter Horses, Paints, and

Appaloosas, and the Texas Thoroughbred HBPA, Inc. (TTHBPA), which represents owners and trainers of Thoroughbreds and Arabians. The THP is controlled by a management committee which consists of an equal number of representatives from the THBPA and

TEXAS LT GOV REMAINS UNAVAILABLE TO MEET HORSEMEN

Despite repeated attempts by Texas horsemen and the Texas Thoroughbred Association to meet with Texas Lieutenant Governor Dan Patrick to discuss the future of the horse industry in the state, no such meeting has taken place.

On November 4, 2015, Mr. Patrick wrote a letter to the state's horsemen and racetracks asking for "recommendations on how we can help preserve and grow your industry."

In response, the Texas Thoroughbred Association, in letters dated November 16 and December 3, formally requested a meeting through Mr. Patrick's office. Numerous emails were then exchanged to follow up. To date, all attempts to arrange a meeting have been rebuffed. When told that Mr. Patrick did not have any availability in Austin due to his travel schedule, the TTA also offered to meet at any location outside of Austin that would fit in with his schedule.

"The thousands of people who make their living in the horse racing and breeding industry are worried about their livelihoods and whether they will be forced to relocate to another state," said TTA Executive Director Mary Ruyle. "They also feel frustrated and betrayed that despite the Lieutenant Governor's public statements, there is an apparent lack of desire on his part to sit down to discuss the issues facing the industry and find possible solutions."

The situation for horsemen is especially dire as breeding season is approaching and Sam Houston Race Park is in the midst of its race meet with a possible shutdown of the Texas racing industry in February if funding is not approved for the Texas Racing Commission.

"This is not a political question; it is about the livelihood of Texans," stated Ruyle. "We ask Mr. Patrick to keep his public promise. We want to assure Texas horsemen that we are diligently pursuing a meeting with Mr. Patrick to take place as soon as possible and will be available at any time and place for Sunday, May 8. The company also announced that the inaugural runnings of the Sales Stakes races for 3-year-olds will be held on May 6-7, 2016, at Evangeline Downs.

"We pushed the date of the sale back a little bit in 2016 to allow more time for buyers and consignors who might also be participating in earlier sales," said Foster Bridewell, sales director for Equine Sales Company. "We had a lot of interest in this auction last year with the addition of the Sales Stakes, and we expect that interest to continue to grow this year."

This will mark the third juvenile auction for Equine Sales Company with the 2015 edition in April recording a seven-percent increase in gross sales compared to the first auction in 2014.

The Sales Stakes are restricted to graduates of any of the three annual Equine Sales Company auctions, starting with the auctions held in 2015, and will offer two divisions at $75,000 a piece going a route of ground. The fillies division has been set for May 6, Kentucky Oaks Day, with colts and geldings running on May 7, Kentucky Derby Day. Graduates of the 2015 Stars of Tomorrow 2-year-old sale at Evangeline will also be eligible for the 2016 races, however that auction will not be conducted in the future. Graduates of the 2016 Equine Sales Company 2-year-old sale will be eligible for the 2017 races as 3-year-olds. The races will be given official names in the near future.

Gross sales for the five-day auction, held Jan. 11-15, totaled $35,463,000, up from the $35,305,500 recorded during last year's four-day sale. The average of $34,099 was down 8.44 percent from $37,242 in 2015. The median of $11,000 decreased 31.25 percent compared to last year's $16,000. This year 1,040 horses were sold versus 948 last year.

"The sales continue to bear two positive signs: market stability, despite a currently volatile economic climate, and the willingness of buyers to stretch their budgets for the exceptional horses," Keeneland President and CEO Bill

CONGRESS PASSES BILLS FAVORABLE TO AHC

The 114th Congress, though it started with the partisan gridlock that has become the new normal in Washington, ended the year with a burst of productivity by passing several major pieces of legislation including a tax extender bill, and an omnibus appropriations bill. Each of these bills includes provisions favorable to the overall horse industry that have been priorities for the American Horse Council.

The Tax Extender bill, called the Protecting Americans from Tax Hikes Act of 2015, reinstates three-year-depreciation for all race horses for two more years. It also increases the Section 179 business expense deduction back to $500,000 and makes this provision permanent. The bill restores bonus depreciation for qualifying new property, including assets used in the horse business, such as horses and other equipment, purchased and placed in service during 2015 through 2019. The bill also restores and makes permanent favorable tax treatment for land donated for conservation purposes, particularly land donated by farmers and ranchers, like horse owners and breeders.

The omnibus appropriations bill that will fund the government until September 30, 2016, also includes important H-2B temporary worker changes. The bill rolls back parts of a burdensome new H-2B rule and will make it easier for horse industry employers to use the program when no American workers can be found.

“Horse industry employers, mainly horse trainers and owners who cannot find American workers to fill semi-skilled jobs at race-tracks and horse shows, often have to turn to this program for workers. They do this because they have no choice and this program has gotten progressively more expensive and harder to use. Most H-2B workers in the industry are directly responsible for the care of the horses upon which the entire horse industry is dependent and without them thousands of American horse industry jobs could be lost,” said AHC vice president of government affairs Ben Pendergrass.

NATIONAL HBPA SUPPORTS AHC WELFARE CODE

The National Horsemen’s Benevolent & Protective Association is the latest organization to endorse the American Horse Council’s (AHC) Welfare Code of Practice.

The AHC Welfare Code of Practice is a broad set of principles designed to establish good welfare procedures for organizations to follow to “Put the Horse First.” The code outlines in broad strokes what principles organizations are committed to in breeding, training, competing, transporting, enjoying, and caring for their horses. The code encourages everyone to consider the health, safety, and welfare of their horses in all aspects of their activities, including the social and ethical issues.

The AHC’s code is not intended to supersede an organization’s rules or regulations. Any organization’s more specific rules still govern activities sanctioned and regulated by the organization. Rather the code is a compliment to any such rules and restates the principles to be followed by breed registries, trade associations, various disciplines and the horse community as a whole in pursuing their equine activities.

To review the AHC Welfare Code of Practice, a list of the 52 organizations supporting the code, and a FAQs page, please visit the AHC Website at www.horsecouncil.org.
